Re: Denise DeMartini v. Town of Gulf Stream
 Supreme Court Case No.: 19-1436
 Request for extension of time to file response to a petition for writ of certiorari

To the Clerk of the United States Supreme Court:

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 30, Respondent Town of Gulf Stream requests an extension of time of sixty days to files its brief in the response to Petitioner's Petition for Writ Certiorari, which was filed on June 26, 2020, and docketed on June 30, 2020. Respondent's response is currently due on July 30, 2020, and Respondent seeks a sixty-day extension up to and including Monday, September 28, 2020. The undersigned attorney for the Respondent (Hudson C. Gill, Esq.) has conferred with counsel for the Petitioner (Charles D. Tobin, Esq.) and can advise that the Petitioner does not object to the requested extension.

Petitioner Denise DeMartini filed her Petition for Writ of Certiorari on June 26, 2020. Under the Supreme Court's March 19, 2020, general order, the

Denise DeMartini v. Town of Gulf Stream
Supreme Court Case No.: 19-1436
July 16, 2020

Petitioner's deadline to file her petition was extended 150 days because of the ongoing public health concerns relation to COVID-19.

Based on the national emergency associated with COVID-19 and the corresponding work restrictions and social distancing guidelines, the Respondent needs additional time to prepare its response. The current restrictive conditions make it difficult for counsel to confer with their client and complete the response in the time normally allotted under the Supreme Court Rules.

In addition, the undersigned counsel for the Town (Hudson C. Gill, Esq.) was out of the office for personal reasons from July 1 through July 12 and was unable work on the response during this time.

A sixty-day extension of time will allow Respondent time to complete the response brief, give the client time to review and provide comments, and will allow Respondent time to properly print the brief in accordance with the Supreme Court Rules.

Very truly yours,

Hudson C. Gill
