

diana johnson <diana@johnsonandlufrano.com>

Florida Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers Amicus Support of Petition for Certiorari in Smith v. United States; 19-361

Reich, Mitchell P. <mitchell.reich@hoganlovells.com>

Tue, Oct 8, 2019 at 4:37 PM

To: diana johnson <diana@johnsonandlufrano.com>

We consent. Thank you!

From: diana johnson [mailto:diana@johnsonandlufrano.com]

Sent: Tuesday, October 08, 2019 4:36 PM

To: Reich, Mitchell P.; SupremeCtBriefs@usdoj.gov

Cc: Michael Ufferman

Subject: Florida Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers Amicus Support of Petition for Certiorari in Smith v. United States; 19-361

Counsel of Record in Renado Smith and Richard Delancy v. United States:

Pursuant to S. Ct. R. 37.2(a), please accept this as Notice of Florida Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers' intention of filing an amicus curiae brief in support of granting certiorari and in support of the Petitioners in the above-referenced case.

No blanket consent has been filed, as such please let me know your position so I may comply with the rule when filing our amicus brief with the Court due October 18, 2019.

Diana L. Johnson

Board Certified Expert in Criminal Appellate Law

Johnson and Lufrano, P.A.

1010 East Adams Street

Suite 205

Jacksonville, Florida 32202

(904) 513-3905

(904) 212-0691 (Fax)

<http://www.jaxcriminaldefenseattorney.com/>