

No. 19-465

In The
Supreme Court Of The United States

Peter Bret Chiafalo, Levi Jennet Guerra, and Esther Virginia John, Petitioners,

v.

State of Washington, Respondent.

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO DISPENSE WITH PREPARATION OF A JOINT APPENDIX

Pursuant to Rule 26.8 of this Court, petitioners Peter Bret Chiafalo, Levi Jennet Guerra, and Esther Virginia John respectfully seek leave to dispense with the requirement of printing a joint appendix in this case. Counsel for Respondent State of Washington concurs in this motion.

The question presented in this case is whether presidential electors have a constitutional right to vote with discretion for President of the United States. The appendix to the petition for a writ of certiorari includes all of the lower court opinions as well as the opinion of the administrative law judge. The parties have consulted and do not believe that any other portion of the record merits special attention and warrants the preparation and expense of a joint appendix. A separate joint appendix would not materially assist the Court in its consideration of this case. Thus, the motion to dispense with printing a joint appendix in this appeal, Chiafalo v. Washington, No. 19-465, should be granted.

Petitioners note that the Colorado Department of State—the petitioner in the consolidated case, Colorado Department of State v. Baca, No. 19-518—has separately requested an extension of time to file any joint appendix in Baca. Dispensing with the joint appendix in this appeal (Chiafalo) is not intended to affect anything about the Court’s consideration of that request nor affect the preparation of a joint appendix in that separate appeal.
