QUESTION(S) PRESENTED

It is petition for abuse of constitutional and civil rights of the Plaintiffs by the institution, where they are incarcerated MCE first and then MDC, Brooklyn, NY. They were exposed to severe discrimination and constant abuse of rights in the jail. Also was made attempt to make Iotova incompetent. She never allowed to be evaluated, never participated in any, made all the steps of complaining of violation of her patients' rights, but false report was made about her in MCE, that slander, defamate her name and it is the reason to keep the Plaintiffs in jail for one and a half year.

CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

1. Violations of prisoners rights and civil rights
2. Violation of constitutional rights
3. Violation of patients' rights a person to be violently, forcefully send to see a doctor against his will and his human rights
4. The right petitions of the prisoners in the federal facility to be allowed to complain in Court without prepayment of fees if they have no income and any resources. The detainees were denied any form of justice.
5. The detainees were exposed to inhuman conditions in a federal jail.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Plaintiffs are detained for more than a year in federal facility MCC and MDCC, NY, where they are exposed to unhuman conditions and severe violations of their civil rights. Also two "doctors" made a fraudulent report of competency about Plaintiff Tolora against her will and against her patients' rights, without examining her in any way. They wrote a fraud report that not only defamates the name of Tolora, who is a public figure, but also keeps the prisoners in jail for more than 1 year, exposed to unhuman and anticonstitutional conditions.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

1. Severe violations of the constitution
2. Violation of civil rights and liberties
3. Violation of patients' rights
4. Unhuman conditions of detention for the pretrial prisoners in the detention centers
5. Severe discrimination and abuse of power by federal officers and employees, who are not responsible and accountable for the human rights violations.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. - Totoro, Antwaneta Dec. -
Date: 04/11/19 Issak Almalen
