

evidence from multiple independent parties with inculpatory evidence against Respondent thus far never adjudicated.

Petitioner respectfully moves this court, under its own decided cases in Foot Note #6, to also provide "Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law" on any decision rendered on the relevant issues at hand, or why these constitutional and statutory issues should not be finally adjudicated by this court.

Respectfully Submitted,

Date: October 24th, 2019

Jeffrey T. Maehr,
924 E. Stollsteimer Rd.,
Pagosa Springs, Colorado [81147]
(970) 731-9724

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

Petitioner attests to sending a true and complete copy of this Petition for Rehearing document to the party named below, on October 24th, 2019.

Solicitor General of the United States, Rm. 5616, Department of Justice, 950 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, Washington, DC, 20530-0001.

Jeffrey T. Maehr

CERTIFICATION

Petitioner herein certifies that, to the best of his knowledge and legal understanding, this Petition is presenting in "good faith and not for delay" (since this is truly a justice and constitutional case, and since there is nothing that can be delayed in this case), and due to "intervening circumstances of substantial or controlling effect" (controlling constitutional questions affecting 150 million Americans), and based on further "substantial grounds not previously presented", in the way of a recently dismissed related court case, as discussed herein.

Jeffrey T. Maehr