

No. _____

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

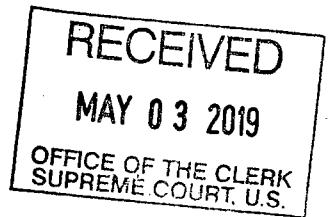

United States of America,

Appellee,

vs.

Michael Jackson,

Appellant.

On Appeal from the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit
Case No.: 16-17119-JJ

MR. JACKSON'S MOTION REQUESTING 60 ADDITIONAL DAYS TO FILE HIS PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI

Mr. Jackson received the court of appeals denial of his request for panel rehearing dated February 15, 2019. Mr. Jackson has until May 15, 2019 in order to file for petition for writ of certiorari with the Supreme Court and is preparing to do so as an incarcerated and pro se individual. As such, Mr. Jackson must overcome the many obstacles associated with prison life when preparing this filing and requests an additional 60 days in order to do so.

Mr. Jackson is incarcerated in federal prison at FCI Coleman Low in Coleman, Florida. This prison is subject to numerous daily recalls and lockdowns for reasons to include staff shortages, staff training, institution counts, weather, shakedowns, security breaches, and many other reasons that inmates are never informed about. These situations prevent Mr. Jackson's ability to access the education department where the one copy machine (only available for 30 minutes, 3 times a day, 4 days a week), the 6 functional non-memory typewriters (there are only 5 working power cords) and the 12 functional law library computers are housed and shared by the over 2,000 men housed in this prison.

All of these are the known obstacles that Mr. Jackson faces, let alone the ones that he is not aware of that prevent an otherwise earlier filing. Therefore, he requests 60 additional days in order to prepare and file his petition for writ of certiorari with this Court.
