Question (s) Presented:

1. Is my 9th amendment right being violated, by the Federal Appeals court by ignoring the fact that the State Court Justice, Richard G Stearns dismissed my complaint, making the disparaging remark my allegations are “bizarre assertions”, without allowing for a review of my supporting documents, which were provided to the appeals court?
2. Are the Federal Appeals Court and the State Court of Massachusetts ignoring my right to the discovery of facts, supporting my allegations in that the defendants can provide information, which would allow for discovery of an inheritance promised to me by way of an irrevocable trust from Dr. Urban H. Eversole and of the whereabouts of his beloved wife’s remains, Madge J. Eversole (my Great Aunt)?

Statute and Rules

1. 9th Amendment, "The enumeration in the constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people".

2. Crime Victims' Rights Act 18 U.S.C. 3771; Crime Victim's Rights

(8) The right to be treated with fairness and with respect for the victim's dignity and privacy.

3. Massachusetts Rules of Civil Procedure 26 (b)(1)

"Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence."

IN THE
SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

1. 9th Amendment Individual Rights of the Constitution.
2. Crime Victims' Rights Act 18 U.S.C. 3771
3. Massachusetts Rules of Civil Procedure 26 (b) (1)

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

1. I have a right to be treated fairly, with respect to my dignity.
2. I, Joanna M. Eiermann, am related by blood to Dr. Urban Harris Eversole, who is my great Uncle. I have a right to discovery of information, which may lead to the recovery of a promised inheritance and the remains of his beloved wife, Madge J. Eversole.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

I sought and received the legal advice of professional investigators, law enforcement and attorneys regarding my complaint against the defendants. I was told due to lack of funds and lack of interest that my complaint was not worth pursuing for them.

It is of National Importance for a United States Citizen to be able to represent themselves in a legal complaint, without prejudice or discrimination due to lack of money, economic status or education.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
