To All Parties:

Enclosed please find case opening information regarding the above-captioned appeal by Tara Glass docketed at No. 19-1815. All inquiries should be directed to your Case Manager in writing or by calling the Clerk's Office at 215-597-2995. This Court's rules, forms, and case information are available on our website at <http://www.ca3.uscourts.gov>.

APPELLANT REQUEST FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL:

If you are without funds to pay the fees and/or to retain counsel and wish this Court to appoint counsel under the Criminal Justice Act, it will be necessary for you to complete in full the enclosed Financial Affidavit Form. The form must be received by this office by 04/25/2019.

It is the responsibility of an appellant to file this form if he/she cannot afford to pay the filing fees or to retain counsel. Appellant is cautioned: If you do not file the Financial Affidavit or you do not pay the fees and have retained counsel, the appeal may be dismissed.

After the form is completed in full, have the original notarized in the bottom left-hand corner and return it to this office, at which time it will be treated as your motion for appointment of counsel under the Criminal Justice Act. Two additional copies of the affidavit are enclosed. Send one completed copy to the appropriate U.S. Attorney. Advise this office in writing that you have made proper service. You may keep the remaining copy for your files.

If Appellee has any objection to the motion, Appellee must respond promptly.

If counsel is appointed, it is the policy of this Court to appoint counsel who represented Appellant at the trial in the court below. See 3rd Cir. LAR Misc. 109.1.

COUNSEL FOR APPELLEE As Counsel for Appellee(s), you must file:

1. Appearance Form

This form must be filed on or before 04/25/2019.

Attached is a copy of the full caption in this matter as it is titled in the district court. Please review this caption carefully and promptly advise this office in writing of any discrepancies.

Very truly yours,
Patricia S. Dodszuweit, Clerk

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
District of New Jersey

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CASE NUMBER 1:12-CR-00542-RMB-1

TARA GLASS

Defendant.

JUDGMENT IN A CRIMINAL CASE
(For Revocation of Probation or Supervised Release)
(For Offenses Committed On or After November 1, 1987)

The defendant, TARA GLASS, was represented by ANDREW BITAR, ESQUIRE.

Violation number(s) 2, 3 and 4 have been dismissed.

The defendant admitted guilt to violation number(s) 1 as stated on the violation petition. Accordingly, the court has adjudicated that the defendant is guilty of the following violation(s):

Violation Number	Nature of Violation
1	Alcohol/Narcotic use

As pronounced on March 08, 2019, the defendant is sentenced as provided in pages 2 through 5 of this judgment. The sentence is imposed pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984.

It is ordered that the defendant must notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence, or mailing address until all fines, restitution, costs and special assessments imposed by this judgment are fully paid. If ordered to pay restitution, the defendant must notify the court and United States attorney of any material change in economic circumstances. Unless modified by this judgment, all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments previously imposed in the judgment filed on 11/19/2012 remain in full force and effect, if not already paid.

Signed this 11th day of March, 2019.

Renée Marie Bumb
U.S. District Judge

Judgment - Page 2 of 5

Defendant: TARA GLASS
Case Number: 1:12-CR-00542-RMB-1

IMPRISONMENT

It is ordered and adjudged that the previously imposed term of supervised release is revoked and the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 3 months.

The Court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:

The be designated to a facility for service of this sentence as near as possible to Cincinnati, Ohio.

The defendant will remain in custody pending service of sentence.

Deputy Marshal

Defendant: TARA GLASS
Case Number: 1:12-CR-00542-RMB-1

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of 54 months.

Within 72 hours of release from custody of the Bureau of Prisons, you must report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which you are released.

While on supervised release, you must not commit another federal, state, or local crime, must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance and must comply with the mandatory and standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as set forth below.

You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of commencement of supervised release and at least two tests thereafter as determined by the probation officer. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it is a condition of supervised release that you pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

You must comply with the following special conditions:

ALCOHOL/DRUG TESTING AND TREATMENT

You must refrain from the illegal possession and use of drugs, including prescription medication not prescribed in your name, and the use of alcohol, and must submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that you must submit to evaluation and treatment, on an outpatient or inpatient basis, as approved by the U.S. Probation Office. You must abide by the rules of any program and must remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged by the Court. You must alert all medical professionals of any prior substance abuse history, including any prior history of prescription drug abuse. The U.S. Probation Office will supervise your compliance with this condition.

MENTAL HEALTH TREATMENT

You must undergo treatment in a mental health program approved by the U.S. Probation Office until discharged by the Court. As necessary, said treatment may also encompass treatment for gambling, domestic violence and/or anger management, as approved by the U.S. Probation Office, until discharged by the Court. The U.S. Probation Office will supervise your compliance with this condition.

RESIDENTIAL REENTRY CENTER PLACEMENT (3 months WITHOUT weekend privileges)

You must reside for a period of 3 months in a community corrections center, halfway house or similar residential facility and must observe all the rules of that facility. You will not be eligible for weekend privileges. You must pay subsistence as required by the program.

LETTER TO THE COURT

You must write a letter to the Court to be delivered to the U.S. Probation officer for forwarding to the Court, every month as to her progress and future, and any other matter you wish to discuss, and you shall write a letter to her grandmother Lois Roberts, to be delivered to the Probation officer for forwarding to Ms. Roberts, every month as to her progress and future, and any other matter you wish to discuss.

NO CONTACT WITH AHMED ELNENAEG

You must have no contact whatsoever, including by phone, e-mail, and in person, with Ahmed Elnenaey. The Court may re-consider this restriction upon sufficient evidence that Elnenaey no longer poses a danger to defendant's health and welfare.

Defendant: TARA GLASS
Case Number: 1:12-CR-00542-RMB-1

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1) You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2) After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3) You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4) You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5) You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7) You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have fulltime employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8) You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9) If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10) You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11) You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12) If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

13) You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

For Official Use Only --- U.S. Probation Office

Upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release, I understand that the Court may (1) revoke supervision or (2) extend the term of supervision and/or modify the conditions of supervision.

These conditions have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions, and have been provided a copy of them.

You shall carry out all rules, in addition to the above, as prescribed by the Chief U.S. Probation Officer, or any of his associate Probation Officers.
