Tenth Amendment

Article II, Section 2 of the Constitution

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On July 26,2019, I was arrested by the United States Marshal Service. I was charged with violating 18 U.S.C. § 115 (a) (1) (b). My arrest was not privileged to the United States of America. My subsequent conviction violated the narrow federal-state balance. Exceptional circumstances warrant the exercise of the Court's discretionary powers.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE WRIT

The application of the law violated the Constitution's federalism limitations on the statutory implementation of treaties by Congress.

Bond v. United States, 564 U.S. 211 (2011), is a decision by the Supreme Court of the United States that individuals, just like states, may have standing to raise Tenth Amendment challenges to a federal law.

My arrest was not privileged to the United States of America, Bond v. United States, 572 U.S. 844 (2014).

The petition for re-hearing should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Debra L. Luss
