PROOF OF SERVICE

I, Russell Rope, declare that on this date, August 5th, 2019, as required by Supreme Court Rule 29, that I have served the enclosed EMERGENCY: MOTION FOR LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS and PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI, and MOTION(S) FOR EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION, SUMMARY JUDGEMENT, ~~EFILING~~ WITH DISCREPANCY, TO LODGE EVIDENCE UNDER SEAL, ETC. on each party to the above proceeding, specifically on their counsel by both electronically filing said documents in the Ninth Circuit and emailing where they have previously agreed to electronic service. Furthermore, Petitioner is exempt from traditional methods of serving Respondents for the following reason:

SCOTUS Rule 29.3:

Plaintiff is both pro se and in forma pauperis. The rule is not clear as what exactly to do in this extraordinary situation, but other SCOTUS instructions and rules give reason for Petitioner to believe The Court can and will provide service if unbelievably necessary.
