STATEMENT OF THE CASE

1. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals wrongfully awarded me reconsideration from the district court ~~EASTERN~~ division on one hand and denied reconsideration on the other hand!

This constitutes reasonable doubt. See memorandum opinion 2010 by District Judge Ricardo Urbina. The district permitted Raintree Tower Apartment officers Rita Smith ESQ, Carolyn West ESQ, and Kathy Barrilleaux, Sr. Vice Pres. to steal my identity, tamper with my mail, re-route it to California, Missouri, to Virginia, to Indianapolis, to Virginia, to Houston, then to Beaumont and stole my money!

This constitutes larceny, grand theft! See Interstate commerce clause!

After I found them out, they evicted me illegally! This is a violation of my fair housing rights. See HUD 42 USC § 3101 et seq (1965)

Only an intake representative can evict me with cause. Raintree Tower Apt. officers were allowed to keep my security deposit.

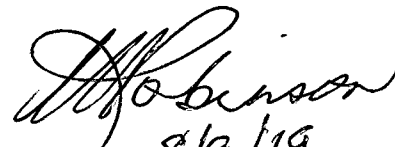

This is a violation of my Tenant's Rights. See Tenant's Rights book let by the Young Lawyers Association of Texas.

This also constitutes discrimination. See also Tenant's Rights by the Young Lawyers Association of Texas.

This is also a violation of my IV Amendment Rights! The 60th District Court tampered with evidence! Judge Gary Sanderson changed the name of managing director from Josh Allen to Alejandro Washington in order to conceal the account of Raintree Tower Apts. Chase bank account in Indianapolis Indiana, where my check from FEMA was supposedly cashed. He also allowed my counsel Ann Bradley to withdraw from my case using a fictitious name of Wingrove Washington, instead of Wingrove Robinson, while allowing her to keep my retainer of $2242. He himself is going by the name of Justin Sanderson, instead of Gary Sanderson, when I first filed a claim in his court!

The 9th District Court of Appeals agrees with the procedures of the lower courts!

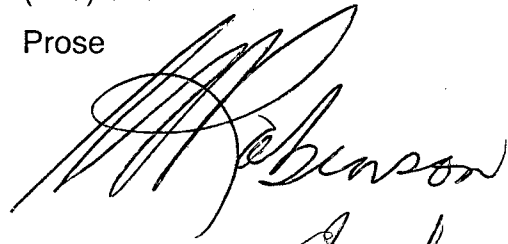

This is a violation of APA Act for judges! Also a violation of the 7 cannons for judges!
