UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff-Appellee

v.

PABLO SUASTE BALDERAS,

Defendant-Appellant

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
USDC No. 3:18-CR-217-1

Before BENAVIDES, HAYNES, and WILLETT, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Pablo Suaste Balderas pleaded guilty to illegal reentry after deportation, in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1326, and he was sentenced to 63 months in prison, to be followed by a three-year supervised release term. Suaste Balderas correctly concedes that the second argument he raises on appeal – that his sentence violates due process because it exceeded the statutory maximum charged in the indictment – is foreclosed by Almendarez-Torres v. United

* Pursuant to 5TH CIR. R. 47.5, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published and is not precedent except under the limited circumstances set forth in 5TH CIR. R. 47.5.4.

States, 523 U.S. 224, 226-27 (1998). He raises the issue, however, to preserve it for further review.

In addition, Suaste Balderas contends that the district court plainly erred by stating in the judgment that his conviction was punishable under § 1326(b)(2), rather than § 1326(b)(1), because his prior Texas conviction for manufacture/delivery of a controlled substance was not an aggravated felony for purposes of § 1326(b)(2), and he requests modification of the judgment accordingly. To show plain error, he must show a forfeited error that is clear or obvious and that affects his substantial rights. Puckett v. United States, 556 U.S. 129, 135 (2009). If he makes such a showing, we have the discretion to correct the error but do so “only if the error seriously affects the fairness, integrity or public reputation of judicial proceedings.” Id. (internal quotation marks, brackets, and citations omitted).

As Suaste Balderas correctly notes, his Texas conviction does not qualify as an aggravated felony because the statute prohibiting manufacture and delivery of a controlled substance is indivisible and includes mere offers to sell. See United States v. Hinkle, 832 F.3d 569, 574 (5th Cir. 2016); United States v. Ibarra-Luna, 628 F.3d 712, 715-16 (5th Cir. 2010). Accordingly, the designation in the written judgment indicating that Suaste Balderas was convicted and sentenced under § 1326(b)(2) was erroneous. See United States v. Godoy, 890 F.3d 531, 542 (5th Cir. 2018). We therefore MODIFY the district court’s judgment to reflect that Suaste Balderas was sentenced under § 1326(b)(1), and we AFFIRM the judgment AS MODIFIED.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: Three (3) years as to Count 1.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: PABLO SUASTE BALDERAS
CASE NUMBER: 3:18-CR-00217-N(1)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only
