PETITION FOR REHEARING

This Petition for Writ of Certiorari ("Cert_1") which was docketed in this case. was denied on November 12, 2019.

The Questions Presented in this case are too important to the constitutional rights of Citizens to be overlooked without definitive ruling from this Court. In the absence of decisive ruling from this Court; recurrence of similar cases is guaranteed to taunt and openly subject disadvantage, law abiding Citizens to unconstitutional torturous intimidating injustice. Petitioner thus respectfully request that the Court grants rehearing of this petition by giving consideration as deemed appropriate by constitutional. justice.

In this case, Petitioner was defrauded of invaluable asset in a fraudulent scheme orchestrated by the Respondents. The Plaintiff filed Complaint to redress his grievances of being dispossessed of his properties in violation of the Federally guaranteed constitutional right to possession. The Trial Court prejudicially and erroneously dismissed the Appellant's Complaint and Default judgment against Respondents The Supreme Court of California in its discretion denied review of the decisions in the Lower Courts.

Petitioner was denied the constitutional right to justice when the Court of Appeal prejudicially denied review of his appeal after he was fraudulently dispossessed of his invaluable possession. The Appellant was then erroneously subjected to Cost from the Respondents.

For the foregoing reasons, the petition for rehearing should be granted

Respectfully submitted
