RE: In Re Matthew Lee Staszak
No: 19-6121

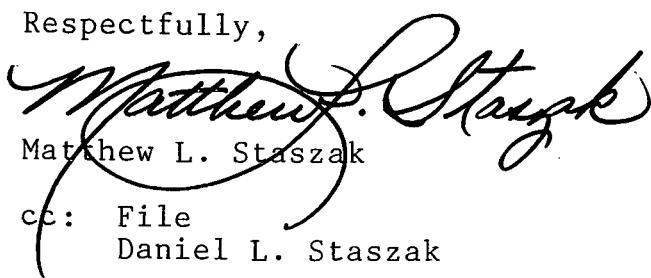

Dear Jeffrey Atkins:

The Certificate per the compliance under Rule 44
on Rehearing is enclosed and signed.

I mailed this first-class mail on December 17, 2019, and this should be considered timely. See Certificate of Service.

Thank-you for your assistance and please inform me if you need an additional information pertaining to my Petition for Rehearing, or any further compliance thereof.

Respectfully,

Matthew L. Staszak

Petitioner Staszak incorporates paragraphs 3 and 4 by reference within their entirety that the timeframe for there not being any adjudication and/or a ruling within Petitioner's Section 2255 Motion out of the Southern District of Illinois, has become greater in length and now exceeding 19-months total since April 25, 2018.

Therefore, the time has changed and increased since Petitioner's filing of his Writ of Mandamus at both the Seventh Circuit of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court.

The above grounds are limited to intervening circumstances of a substantial or controlling effect and to other substantial grounds not previously presented.

This is restricted to the grounds specified within paragraphs 3 and 4 located within the Petition for Rehearing and is presented in good faith and not for delay.
