RE: Cornelius L. Wilson v. Dennis Grimes, et al
Number: 19-6148 - Supreme Court of the United States

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am the Sr. Special Assistant Parish Attorney representing Respondent/Defendant in the above referenced litigation, wherein Cornelius Lorenzo Wilson seeks Supervisory Writs of Certiorari. Due to the press of other work, I elected not to file an opposition to Mr. Wilson's application. By correspondence dated November 26, 2019, this Court requested counsel to file a response to the writ application. Counsel will, of course, honor this request but he is in need of an accommodation.

The Litigation Section of the Parish Attorney's Office, where I work, is a very dynamic office handling a high volume of civil case, as a result, it will be very difficult for counsel to clear his calendar enough to write the opposition. Office staff, who are experienced in filing preparing the memo and filing it with this Court, have plans to enjoy the holiday with family and friends. Therefore, in light of the press of other work and the Christmas holiday, I respectfully request that this Court extend the return date for filing an opposition to plaintiff's writ application for thirty days (30), or until January 26, 2020.

Wishing you, and the Court, the very best in this holiday season, I am

Sincerely,

AHA:Iro
