PETITIONER FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI

Petitioner Twila Haynes Respectfully petition this court for Writ of Certiorari to review the Opinion of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania affirming the order of Common Pleas Court of Philadelphia County.

JURISDICTION

This is a direct appeal from a final order of the Court of Common Pleas, Philadelphia County, denying Petitioner In Forma Pauperis (I.F.P.)

A party who is without financial resources to pay the costs of litigation is entitled to proceed in forma Pauperis.

CONSTITUTION AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVE D

Rule 240 (b)

Rule 240 (j)(1)

7TH Amendment United States Constitution

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On August 29, 2017 Haynes, commenced this action by filing a complaint with the Philadelphia County Court of Common Pleas. The order is of a decision from the Common Pleas, Haynes failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Sept.1, 2017 the court entered an order dismissing Petitioner complaint and in forma Pauperis.

REASON FOR GRANTING THE WRIT

CERTIORARI SHOULD BE GRANTED BECAUSE THE RULE ADOPTED BY THE PA. COURTS WILL HAVE SIGNIFICATION NATIONWIDE IMPACT

I

Certiorari should be granted because the rules adopted by Pa. supreme court and other Courts will have a signification nationwide impact. The Pa. Supreme court order denying petitioners' petition for allowance of appeal was an error of law Under Pa. Rule 240 (j)(1)

II

CERTIORARI SHOULD BE GRANTED TO RESOLVE A CONFLICT BETWEEN THE COURT OF APPEALS

The Pa. Court interpretation of Rule 240 (j)(1) directly conflict with the In forma Pauperis statute.

Under Pa, r.c.p. 240(j)(1) the court has determined that petitioners' complaint is untrue and frivolous.

1. Definition of untrue is making false statements.
 2. Definition of frivolous is one that "lack an arguable basis either in law or fact. Petitioner complaint alleged breach of contract, Negligence and violation of ADA. The court reviewed the complaint, in conjunction with the petition to proceed in forma Pauperis, and dismissed the action as frivolous. The court order dismissing petitioners' IFP and complaint under Pa. 240 (j)(1) was wrong under Pa. rule 240 (j)(1) the court must determine if the complaint lack an arguable basis either law or fact. In the court opinion the fact was clearly stated in petitioners' Twila Haynes complaint. These facts were Breach of Contract, Negligence and Violation of Americans Disability Act.

CONCLUSION

Rule 240 is unconstitutional because it gives the court sole power to determine if a case is frivolous or not, without taking appellant allegation as true.

The court abuse it discretion when the court said the petitioner has the financial means to pay the filing fee petitioner I.F.P form specify financial resources. The court should have allow petitioner IFP to be approved and allow petitioner complaint to move forward, which would allow respondent to file an answer which may or may not have raised these issue listed in the opinion of the court.
