CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On September 21, 2002, the petitioner appeared before a Probable Cause Hearing for Civil Commitment in which the charge of assault with intent to commit (CSC) on minor did not exist on that date, the charge that really exist is assault with intent to commit (CSC) 1st degree same original charge. The charge level act on minor is not a lesser offense to assault with intent is the (same) charge in sufficient evidence that was used to support civil commitment that don't sustain a conviction that the petitioner is being held illegal by civil commitment to address a behavior that does not exist on record.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

Convictions are Admissible 10 yrs after Release under Rule 609 Fed. R. Evid. involve dishonesty and False Statement Rule 403 provides that Relevant Evidence maybe Excluded if its probative value is Substantially Outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice the likelihood that such Conviction never exist under such Crime that did prejudice the (petitioner) against a jury of Civil Commitment of which the Crime or/and offense was not Excluded From the record that did not have Credibility to show that a Conviction exist of such offense as to (CSR) 1st degree reduced to lead act which was not lesser included to the Crime, However the (petitioner) was treated with unfairness to this prejudice effect, in which the (petitioner) requested through challenging convictions Court, District Court, and Court of Appeals in return for Relief to have such Crime/and or offense erase. For Matters of Entrapment, Unfortunately was not granted a hearing regarding the issue at hand, opposition motion/ motion for Counsel was filed and pending and left undecided by the same sentencing judge that abuse its discretion to this unfair prejudice by dismissing the pro, Habeas Corpus. with out a proper hearing being provided.

The Supreme Court ruled that an earlier version of rule 609 was not Subject to Rule 403

See Green v. Beck Laundry Machine Co. 440 U.S. 504, 109 S.Ct. 1481 (1989). Under Green, the Court had no discretion to Exclude Evidence of Criminal Conviction based on Concerns about unfair Prejudice. Rule 609 was Amended in (1990) to change this Result, so Green is no longer Valied.

now that the Court has discretion to exclude evidence of criminal offenses based on concerns about unfair prejudice, Petitioner reserves the right of his illegal Civil Commitment Record, Petitioner is only seeking fairness through the eyes of this Court to exclude only the issue at hand and that is evidence that don't exist.

CONCLUSION

Petitioner fully requests this Court to use its discretion canvass the facts and exclude evidence of unfair prejudice from the record.

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles Jordan
