

No. 19-6427

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

RAY A. SMITH,

Petitioner,

v.

JOHN CHAPDELAINE, Warden, et al.

Respondent,

CERTIFICATE OF GOOD FAITH

COMES NOW Petitioner, Ray A. Smith, and makes certification that his petition for rehearing is presented to this Court in good faith pursuant to Rule 44. Mr Smith further states the following:

1. This Court entered its judgment denying petitioner a Writ of Certiorari on January 13, 2020. Petitioner believes that he presents this Court with adequate grounds to justify the granting of rehearing in this case and said petition is brought in good faith and not for delay. Furthermore, petitioner believes that based upon the law of this Court and facts of this case, Smith is entitled to relief which has been unjustly denied him.

He further believes that if the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals are continually allowed to apply the Strickland standard improperly, a number of people will be denied their constitutional right to due process. I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on this 21st day of January, 2020.

Ray Smith #8998
