Johnson moves this Court to Grant this petition for rehearing and consider Petitioners case with merits briefing and oral argument. Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 44, this petition for rehearing is filed within 25 days of this Courts decision in this case.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

Petitioner has a history of cruel and unusual punishment and was placed in solitary confinement for (14) months and all matters were subsequently reversed aft Judicial findings of U.S. Government attachments). Petitioner was wrongfully confined in NYS DOCCS from December 9, 2014 until January 4, 2016. Petitioner was false arrested in December 19, 2021 and was sexually assaulted by Officers of the 47TH Precinct; 411 Laconia Ave The Bronx, NY 10466 (see attachments) Petitioners Due Process Rights have been violated and as a result Petitioner is mentally and physically anguished & disabled and Petitioner qualifies for SSI/SSD benefits. The Courts did not acknowledge New York's lack of responsibility and fair review when applied to the demanding standard of the AEDPA
