RE: 616699395

Dear Ms. Hettinga:

Our office sent you a letter on December 28, 2018 notifying you of your ineligibility to receive a U.S. passport because you owe child support payments. Our records indicate your eligibility has not changed. Therefore, we are unable to proceed with your request at this time.

Unfortunately, we cannot review or appeal since only the individual state child support enforcement agency and the Department of Health and Human Services can do so. Neither this passport agency nor the Department of State has information concerning your child support obligation. Please contact the appropriate office on this list to resolve the issue or for additional information visit <http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/css/resource/state-and-tribal-child-support-agency-contacts>

Since you were unable to resolve this issue within the timeframes established in our prior correspondence, your passport application is denied. This determination is based on Section 51.60(a)(2) of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations. If you submitted a valid U.S. passport, it has been sent for revocation and will not be returned to you. Any other documents you submitted with your application are enclosed. Any special return postage fees will be returned or refunded only upon written request from the applicant if the service is not provided. By law, the passport execution and application fees are non-refundable.

If you have any questions please contact the National Passport Information Center: 1-877-487-2778 (TTY/TDD: 1-888-874-7793)

RE: 616699395

Dear Ms. Hettinga:

Thank you for your recent passport application. Unfortunately, you are ineligible to receive passport services because the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) certified that you owe child support.

- ◆ Section 51.60(a)(2) of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations reads as follows:

51.60- Denial of Passports

- (a) The Department may not issue a passport, except a passport for direct return to the United States, in any case in which the Department determines or is informed by a competent authority that:
- (2) The applicant has been certified by the Secretary of Health and Human Services as notified by a state agency under 42 U.S.C. 652(k) to be in arrears of child support in an amount determined by the statute.

Neither this passport agency nor the Department of State has information concerning your child support obligation. A list of state child support enforcement agencies and their contact information can be found on-line at <http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/css/resource/state-and-tribal-child-support-agency-contacts>

You must contact and make appropriate arrangements with the relevant state child support agency within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter. After you have made these arrangements, you must notify our office in writing or by calling the National Passport Information Center (NPIC) at the number listed below. Please allow 5 - 10 business days before calling NPIC to give HHS enough time to notify Passport Services.

Once the Secretary of Health and Human Services has certified to the Secretary of State that you have satisfied the child support arrearage, your name will be removed from the certified list. Please note that several states require a zero dollar ($0.00) balance before allowing passport issuance to an individual who was previously in arrearage. All questions regarding such policies must be addressed to the appropriate state child support office. If satisfactory payment arrangements have not been made with the relevant state within 90 days of the date of this letter, your application will be denied. The Department of State cannot change, override, or appeal this policy.

To assist with processing your application, we must receive the requested information within ninety (90) days of the date shown on this letter. If the information is not received or is insufficient to establish your entitlement to a U.S. passport, your application may be denied and your citizenship evidence will be returned. By law, the passport execution and application fees are non-refundable.

To check the status of your passport

If you are living in the United States, you can check the status of your passport application online at travel.state.gov. PLEASE REQUESTED INFORMATION!
