Re: Amy Corbitt v. Michael Vickers
No. 19-679

Dear Mr. Harris:

I respectfully oppose the 30-day extension request sought by respondents in this matter. The question presented in this case is related to that presented in several other co-pending petitions, including No. 19-676, Zadeh v. Robinson, and No. 18-1287, Baxter v. Bracey. Petitioner submits that it would aid the Court for these petitions to be considered together.

In recognition of obligations identified by respondent's counsel, petitioner suggests a deadline of March 23 for the brief in opposition, a 14-day extension of time. Petitioner will then waive the 14-day waiting period, requesting distribution of this case on April 1, for the April 17, 2020 conference.

Respectfully,

Paul W. Hughes
