CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

Appellees committed corporation collections fraud, RICO ACT CRIMES, breach of confidentiality and contracts for civil and human rights violations against Appellant. Appellant does not owe any debts to Appellees as debtor accounts are falsified documents forged for monetary collections and Judicial Review for civil and Criminal prosecution. Appellant was not afforded a fair hearing & Judicial Officials were bribed to dismiss Appellant's White Collar Crimes & RICO ACT matters especially <sup>as</sup> Appellant appearing Pro Se for proceedings.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Plaintiff requests Writ of Certiorari from an administrative & Judicial briberies for Appellee's Corporations fraud matters. Appellees used threatening tactics to extort cash payments from Appellant and was immune from criminal prosecutions by administrative & Judicial Officials. Appellant fears for Appellants life as parties involved and conspiring U.S. Government parties have a history of being inhumane & punishing to Appellant. Appellees have not submitted documents for matters, to date, as documents are forged and a federal crime to disclose to any persons or agency.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

Appellant was denied review by bribed Judicial Officials and Appellees remain immune from sanctions and criminal prosecutions. Appellees are in continuance of IRS Tax Fraud, Corporation Fraud, Collections Fraud, Extortion, Threatening Tactics & Human Rights Violations. Appellant is actively being punished as a result of breaches of confidentiality & contracts protected by the U.S. Government. Appellees have yet to be on record for defenses for RICO ACT CRIMES and or submit documents pertaining to extortion & human rights violations.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert W. Johnson
