

IN THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT

Case No. _____

RICHARD ALAN KING,
Petitioner,

HONORABLE JUSTICE ELENA KAGAN

v.

Motion For Extension of Time
To File A Petition For Writ
Of Certiorari In Re Ninth
Circuit Case No: 18-16566

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Respondent
_____ /

Now comes, Petitioner, Richard Alan King, pro se, a prisoner of the United States Reg97546-131 and moves this honorable court for an extension of time for Petitioner to file a Petition For A Writ Of Certiorari up to and including October 15, 2019 for good grounds including:

1) Petitioner, is not a lawyer and has no formal education in the science of the law whatsoever.

2) This is Petitioners first motion for a continuence in this matter.

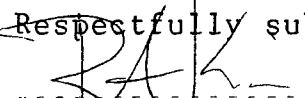

3) Petitioners access to the prison law library and type-writes and inmate advisors is restricted in deference to the needs of the orderly and safe running of the prison. Law library access that is regularly scheduled is subject to cancellation without make up due to lockdowns and inclement weather.

4) Petitioner is a senior citizen who is afflicted with the many of the issues associated with old age including declining cognitive skills and thus generally needs more time to complete his legal research and draft his pleadings.

5) Petitioner, is imprisoned in violation of the Constitution and laws of the United States.

For the reasons expressed above, Petitioner respectfully moves this honorable Court to grant this motion for extension of time to file a petition for a writ of certiorari until October 15, 2019 to review the Ninth Circuits denial of Petitioners application for a Certificate of Appealability.

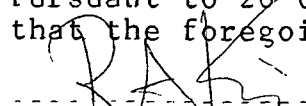

Respectfully submitted
