12. Provide any other information that will help explain why you cannot pay the costs of this case.

By one measure, I could be called a rich man. I own three buildings in slum neighborhoods, in addition to my home. But my rental properties are full of deadbeats and squatters, who cannot be easily evicted. The problem is not so much the filing fee, as the cost of printing the 40 booklets.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

I am going to have to get myself a job — even though managing my properties is a full-time job in itself — because my rental properties are clearly not supporting me. My expectation that I can get a job, however, may be due to wishful thinking.
