

No. 19-7391

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

LARRY DAVIS                      Petitioner

V

LARRY JEBLEY ET. AL

CERTIFICATE OF Good Faith

Comes now Petitioner, Larry Davis, and makes certification that his petition For rehearing is presented to this court in good Faith pursuant to rule 44. Davis Further states the Following

1. This court entered it's Judgement denying petitioner a writ of certiorari on March 30th, 2020. Petitioner believes that he presents this court with adequate grounds to justify the granting of rehearing in this 1983 civil rights action, 42 U.S.C case and said petitioner bring this petition in good Faith and not For delay. Further more, petitioner believes that based upon the law of this court and Facts of this case,

16 Certificate of Good Faith

Davis is entitled to relief which has been unjustly denied him. he further believes that if the Eighth circuit court of Appeals are continually allowed to apply the standard that a guilty plea forecloses a 1983 For arrest without probable cause improperly, a numerous amount of people will be denied their constitutional right to due process. I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct
