Re: Faust v. B.K., by her next friend Margaret Tinsley, No. 19-765

Dear Mr. Harris:

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 30(4), respondent requests a 30-day extension, to and including February 14, 2020, for the filing of a brief in opposition to the petition for certiorari in this case. The petition was docketed on December 16, 2019. Unless an extension is granted, the deadline for filing the brief in opposition will be January 15, 2020.

The requested extension is necessary because of holiday disruptions following the filing of the petition, the press of deadlines in this case in the trial court, the complexity of the litigation, and the extensiveness of the record. Additionally, respondent has been notified that at least one amicus brief will be filed in support of the petition, and an extension is necessary to ensure that respondent will be able to address that brief, and potentially others, in her opposition.

Counsel for petitioner, who requested and received two 30-day extensions to file the petition for certiorari, has advised that petitioner consents to this request.
