

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE
IN RE: PETITION FOR EN BANC/REHEARING
NUNC PRO TUNC...FROM THE COURT'S CONTRARY DECISION

DEVELL SHORT, In Propria Personam/Pro-se
Petitioner

v.

SUPERINTENDENT SCI GREENSBURG et al
Respondent(s)

As required by Supreme Court Rule 29.2, Rule 44.2, and Rule 33.1(g)(xiii), 1.(h). To-wit, I certify that the "Petition for En Banc/Rehearing"..sic...is filed in Lieu of the Court's March 30th, 2020 Contrary Decision which was the Denial of a "Petition for Writ of Certiorari," that was filed in the United States Supreme Court in Good Faith as is this "Petition." Thus, hereafter, I certify that this "Petition" encompass Rule 44.2 complies with requirements setout herein. First the stated grounds are set forth with brevity and distinctly, the grounds are limited to intervening circumstances, involve a substantial/controlling historical effect on grounds not previously presented. The Petition is ripe, presented in Good Faith and not for delay. Moreover was filed under the circumstances of incarceration when presented to prison officials to be deposited in the outgoing mail on April 15, 2020, within (25) days after receipt of the March 30, 2020, Order (Clerk's Letter) Unjustly Denying the Good Faith "Petition for Writ of Certiorari." Accord United States v. Fallen, 84 S. Ct. 1689 (1964). Yet timely filing may be affected by the PA. DOC has the prison on (23) hours lockdown, and/or because of the "COVID-19Virus" may cause processing/service delays. I have done all that could be expected to be done on my own. See the attached "Certificate of Service."

WHEREFORE, I, Devell Short declare that the Petition is filed in Good Faith, is not for delay, and that it seeks meaningful redress from a Manifest Injustice that occurred in the matter subjustice. Thus, I declare under Penalty of Perjury, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, that to the best of my knowledge and belief, that the forgoing is true and correct.

No. 19-7690

IN RE. DEVELL SHORT, In Propria Persona
Petitioner.

v.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, Et al.,
Respondent(s).

As required by Supreme Court Rule 33.1.(h), I certify/declare that that the "Petition for En Banc/Rehearing" ... sic ... Is timely filed in lieu of the Denial of a good faith "Petition for a Writ of Certiorari" and is filed this day in the U.S. Supreme Court, Nunc Pro Tunc... That it contains less than 3000 words, excluding the parts of the Petition that are exempted by Supreme Court Rule 33.1.(d). Moreover, That "I did all that could be done on my own, under the circumstances" per. Fallen v. United States, 84 S.Ct. 1689 (1964).

Wherefore, This Petition is filed in good faith and is not for delay, But is to seek meaningful redress from a manifest injustice that occurred in the matter subjudice.

I Devell Short, declare under penalty of perjury, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, that to the best of my knowledge and belief, that the foregoing is true and correct.
