CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

- ① By Law child support has no Jurisdiction to collect Title IV-D
If the woman is not on welfare, and my daughter mother was never on welfare, I did not take a loan out so why should I pay it.
- ② Child support benefits the Public treasury, and not the child
- ③ Child support (Title IV-D) has no Judicial Powers it is Executive in Nature
The commissioners (Judges) can't adjudicate contempt procedures unless stipulated from the beginning of the child support case. The Judge needs his oath and bond. Furthermore there is no injured party or a contract signed between the father or mother agreeing to terms.
- ④ Child support is a private company that is contracted with the state
How can a private company make you pay anything without having a signed contract.
- ⑤ Child support is not positive Law, which makes it only a provision and can't be forced upon someone

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

Fraud has been committed, And numerous of crimes

I am hoping the court terminates the order, And grant me Punitive, and compensatory damages for all I went through

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.
