THE COURT

The court has considered the petition for transfer of this superior court appellate division denial of a petition for writ. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.1000 et seq.) The request is DENIED because this court does not have jurisdiction to transfer.

A court of appeal cannot take jurisdiction of an appellate division case for transfer unless the petition for transfer is made within the time limitations imposed by the transfer rules. (See Gersten Companies v. Deloney (1989) 212 Cal.App.3d 1119, 1125, fn. 5 [transfer time limits are jurisdictional].) A petition for transfer must be filed in the Court of Appeal no later than 15 days after the appellate division's decision is final. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.1006(b)(1).) This court's power to transfer an appellate division decision on our motion expires 30 days after the appellate division decision is final. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.1008(a)(1)(B).)

In this case, the appellate division summarily denied the writ petition on October 8, 2019. That decision was final upon filing. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.935(b)(1)(A).) Therefore, the petition for transfer filed on November 18, 2019, was untimely filed more than 15 days after the finality of the denial on October 8, 2019. Furthermore, this court's power to transfer the case expired November 7, 2019.
