Before GRUENDER, WOLLMAN, and KOBES, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Arkansas prisoner James Toney appeals the district court's¹ adverse grant of summary judgment in his 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action. After careful review of the record and the parties' arguments on appeal, we conclude that summary judgment was proper. See Tusing v. Des Moines Indep. Cmty. Sch. Dist., 639 F.3d 507, 514 (8th Cir. 2011) (reviewing summary judgment decision de novo, viewing the record in the light most favorable to the non-moving party; stating that summary judgment is appropriate if no genuine issue of material fact exists such that the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law). Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

MEMORANDUM OPINION

This is a civil rights action filed pro se by Plaintiff, James L. Toney, under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Currently before the Court is a Motion for Summary Judgment filed by Defendants Heath Dickson, Keith Prince and Jim Bailey. (ECF No. 55). Plaintiff filed a Response (ECF No. 60) and Defendants filed a Reply. (ECF No. 63). The matter is ripe for consideration.

I. BACKGROUND

Plaintiff is currently an inmate in the Arkansas Department of Correction, Tucker Unit. This case arises from events that occurred on August 23, 2017, while Defendants Dickson and Prince were attempting to execute an arrest warrant on Plaintiff at his home. At the time of the incident, Defendants Dickson and Prince were officers with the City of Malvern Police Department and Bailey was the Assistant Chief of Police. Viewed in the light most favorable to Plaintiff, the relevant facts are as follows.¹

On August 23, 2017, Defendants Dickson and Prince arrived at Plaintiff's residence at 9:09 p.m. to execute an arrest warrant that came through the National Crime Information Center

¹Defendants submitted Defendant Dickson's body camera video of the August 23, 2017, incident in support of their motion for summary judgment. (ECF No. 57-1, filed conventionally with the Clerk). The Court has relied in large part on the video footage in outlining the relevant facts.

(“NCIC”).² Defendant Dickson knocked on Plaintiff’s door and Plaintiff opened the door. (ECF No. 57-2, p. 1). Defendant Dickson advised Plaintiff that there was a warrant for Plaintiff’s arrest and that Defendant Dickson was going to take Plaintiff in for possession charges. Id. Defendant Dickson then asked Plaintiff if he had been given papers on a warrant when he was arrested a few days earlier. Plaintiff stated he was not served papers on a warrant. Id. Defendant Dickson asked Plaintiff a second time if he was served papers on a warrant. Plaintiff then told Defendant Dickson that he did have the papers in his billfold. Id.

Defendant Dickson asked Plaintiff to show him the papers. Defendants Dickson and Prince followed Plaintiff inside his home while he began searching for the warrant papers. Plaintiff yelled toward the back of his home and asked an unidentified person if they knew where his billfold was. Defendants Dickson and Prince followed Plaintiff throughout his living room and into the kitchen using their flashlights to look around. (ECF No. 57-1). Defendant Prince moved toward the kitchen counter where there appeared to be a billfold. Plaintiff told him not to touch it because the billfold belonged to someone else. Plaintiff then advised Defendants Dickson and Prince that his billfold must be in his truck and he walked toward the front door.

Defendants Dickson and Prince followed Plaintiff outside of the home to his vehicle and watched Plaintiff search the vehicle for the warrant. While Plaintiff was looking in the front seat of his vehicle for the warrant papers, Defendants Dickson and Prince received a call concerning an assault with physical injury at another location. Defendants asked Plaintiff to find the warrant so that they “didn’t have to take him in.” (ECF No. 57-1). Defendants Dickson and Prince then left Plaintiff’s residence. (ECF No. 57-2). The entire incident lasted just under three minutes. (ECF No. 57-1).

² The record reflects that Defendant Jim Bailey was not present during the attempted arrest and search on August 23, 2017.

Approximately twenty (20) minutes after Defendants Dickson and Prince left Plaintiff's home, the warrant for Plaintiff's arrest that Defendants Dickson and Prince had relied on was cleared rendering it inactive. (ECF No. 57-2, p. 7). After learning that the warrant had cleared the NCIC system that evening, Defendants Dickson and Prince returned to Plaintiff's residence. Defendant Dickson knocked on Plaintiff's door, but Plaintiff did not open it. Defendant Dickson advised Plaintiff through the closed door that the warrant was invalid, and that they would not be coming back.³ Id. at p. 2.

Plaintiff filed his Complaint on September 25, 2017. (ECF No. 1). On February 12, 2018, Plaintiff filed an Amended Complaint naming Corporal Heath Dickson, Sergeant Keith Prince, and Assistant Chief Jim Bailey as Defendants. (ECF No. 20). Plaintiff initially asserted three claims in his Amended Complaint: (1) violation of his Fourth Amendment Rights during the attempted execution of an arrest warrant on August 23, 2017; (2) unlawful seizure of his property on August 30, 2017, by Defendant Dickson; and (3) "superior aware of harassment...wrongfully Charge's victimize by Malvern Police Department" against Defendant Jim Bailey. Id. at pp. 4-13. On August 9, 2018, Plaintiff voluntarily dismissed claims 2 and 3 of his Amended Complaint leaving only the claims against Defendants Dickson, Prince and Bailey for the alleged violation of his Fourth Amendment rights. (ECF No. 46).⁴

Specifically, Plaintiff claims:

...Around 9:00 p.m. ...I heard Someone knocking At my Door, I thought it was my Brother but when I opened The Door it was officer Heath Dickson And Sgt. Prince, The Pushed me Aside And barged into my house...Officer Dickson Stated He Had a Warrant He and Sgt. Prince Started Searching my Residence. I Asked To See The Warrant Officer Dickson Stated (Shut your mouth I don't need one.) Officer Dickson Shined his flash light Down My hallway and Sgt. Prince Searched my

³ No video footage has been provided to the Court of Defendant Dickson and Prince when they returned to Plaintiff's home to inform him that the warrant was invalid.

⁴ On August 29, 2018, in response to this Court's order, Plaintiff clarified the claims he intended to dismiss. (ECF No. 51).

Kitchen. He picked up my Brothers Wallet from The Counter and Searched it. I Asked Him To put it Down and To See Their warrant for the Second Time and They Refused. I Asked Them To leave...They Refused. About five or Ten minutes had Past They Received A Call and Left...I Reported This Incident To officer Bailey and he never Responded. About 10:30 p.m. officer Dickson And Sgt. Prince Returned. They Beat on my door for about Five minutes and left.

(ECF No. 20, p. 5). Plaintiff is suing Defendants Dickson, Prince and Bailey in their individual and official capacities. He is seeking compensatory and punitive damages. (ECF No. 20, p. 13).

On September 14, 2018, Defendants filed the instant Motion for Summary Judgment and a Memorandum Brief in Support of the motion, arguing that they are entitled to judgment as a matter of law because: (1) Defendants did not violate Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment right to be free from unreasonable search and seizure; (2) they are entitled to qualified immunity; and (3) Plaintiff has not identified any policy or custom of the City of Malvern which violates his constitutional rights. (ECF No. 56). On October 12, 2018, Plaintiff filed a Reply restating his claims against Defendants. (ECF No. 60).

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Summary judgment is appropriate if, after viewing the facts and all reasonable inferences in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party, Matsushita Elec. Indus. Co. v. Zenith Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 587 (1986), the record "shows that there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(a). "Once a party moving for summary judgment has made a sufficient showing, the burden rests with the non-moving party to set forth specific facts, by affidavit or other evidence, showing that a genuine issue of material fact exists." Nat'l Bank of Commerce v. Dow Chem. Co., 165 F.3d 602, 607 (8th Cir. 1999).

The non-moving party "must do more than simply show that there is some metaphysical doubt as to the material facts." Matsushita, 475 U.S. at 586. "They must show there is sufficient evidence to support a jury verdict in their favor.” Nat’l Bank, 165 F.3d at 607 (citing Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 249 (1986)). “A case founded on speculation or suspicion is insufficient to survive a motion for summary judgment.” Id. (citing Metge v. Baehler, 762 F.2d 621, 625 (8th Cir. 1985)). “When opposing parties tell two different stories, one of which is blatantly contradicted by the record, so that no reasonable jury could believe it, a court should not adopt that version of the facts for purposes of ruling on a motion for summary judgment.” Scott v. Harris, 550 U.S. 372, 380 (2007).

III. DISCUSSION

Plaintiff alleges Defendants Dickson and Prince violated his constitutional rights when they entered and searched his home on August 23, 2017, to execute an arrest warrant on Plaintiff without a copy of the warrant. Plaintiff also alleges Defendant Bailey never responded to his complaint concerning the incident. Defendants assert their actions did not violate Plaintiff’s constitutional rights and they are entitled to qualified immunity.

A. Qualified Immunity

The qualified immunity doctrine provides “that government officials performing discretionary functions generally are shielded from liability for civil damages insofar as their conduct does not violate clearly established statutory or constitutional rights of which a reasonable person would have known.” Moore v. City of Desloge, Mo., 647 F.3d 841, 846 (8th Cir. 2011) (quoting Harlow v. Fitzgerald, 457 U.S. 800, 818 (1982)). “Officials are not liable for bad guesses in gray areas; they are liable for transgressing bright lines.” Ambrose v. Young, 474 F.3d 1070, 1077 (8th Cir. 2007) (quoting Davis v. Hall, 375 F.3d 703, 712 (8th Cir. 2004) (internal quotation marks omitted)).

Whether Defendants Dickson, Prince, and Bailey are entitled to qualified immunity depends on “whether the facts alleged, taken in the light most favorable to [Plaintiff] show that [Defendants'] conduct violated a constitutional right. If so, then the Court must determine whether the constitutional right was clearly established at the time.” Norris v. Engles, 494 F.3d 634, 637 (8th Cir. 2007) (quoting Flowers v. City of Minneapolis, 478 F.3d 869, 872 (8th Cir. 2007)) (internal quotation marks omitted). As discussed below, the Court finds that none of the Defendants violated Plaintiff’s constitutional rights and therefore it is unnecessary to address the second prong of the qualified immunity analysis.

1. Defendant Jim Bailey

As an initial matter, the Court finds Plaintiff has failed to state a constitutional claim against Defendant Jim Bailey. Individual liability under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 attaches only if a defendant directly participated in a constitutional violation or if failure to supervise and train an offending employee caused a constitutional deprivation. Williams v. Davis, 200 F.3d 538 (2000) (citing Andrews v. Fowler, 98 F.3d 1069, 1078 (8th Cir. 1996)).

The record demonstrates that Defendant Bailey was not involved in any way in the attempted arrest and search of Plaintiff’s home on August 23, 2017. Moreover, Plaintiff has not alleged that Defendant Bailey failed to train or supervise Defendants Dickson and Prince. Instead, Plaintiff claims he informed Defendant Bailey about what happened and Bailey “never responded”. (ECF No. 20, p. 5). The law is clear that inmates do not have a constitutionally protected right to a grievance procedure. Lomholt v. Holder, 287 F.3d 683, 684 (8th Cir. 2002) (citing Buckley v. Barlow, 997 F.2d 494, 495 (8th Cir. 1993)). There is also no constitutionally protected right to engage in a grievance procedure at a law enforcement agency. For the same reason that an inmate cannot bring a § 1983 claim premised on failure to process grievances, no § 1983 claim premised on a law enforcement agency’s failure to process grievances can proceed.

Accordingly, the Court finds that Defendant Bailey is entitled to qualified immunity and summary judgment should be granted as to Plaintiff’s individual capacity claims against him.

2. Attempted Arrest – Defendants Dickson and Prince

The Fourth Amendment guarantees citizens a right not to be arrested absent the existence of probable cause. Hill v. Scott, 349 F.3d 1068, 1072 (8th Cir. 2003) (citing Habiger v. City of Fargo, 80 F.3d 289, 297 (8th Cir. 1996)). “The Fourth Amendment requires the States to provide a fair and reliable determination of probable cause as a condition for any significant pretrial restraint of liberty.” Baker v. McCollan, 443 U.S. 137, 142-143 (1979) (citing Gerstein v. Pugh, 420 U.S. 103 (1975)). An arrest warrant founded on probable cause implicitly carries with it the limited authority to enter a dwelling in which the suspect lives when there is reason to believe the suspect is there. Payton v. New York, 445 U.S. 573, 586 (1980).

A review of the record confirms that neither Defendant Dickson nor Prince violated Plaintiff’s constitutional rights during the attempted arrest on August 23, 2017. Defendant Dickson ran a search in NCIC for outstanding warrants that evening and an arrest warrant for possession appeared for Plaintiff. (ECF No. 57-2, pp. 3-6). Based on this warrant Defendants Dickson and Prince went to Plaintiff’s residence to arrest him. Although the warrant was cleared and invalidated after Defendants left Plaintiff’s residence, there is nothing in the record to suggest that either Defendant Dickson or Prince was aware of anything that would have made the warrant invalid at the time they attempted to arrest Plaintiff.

In addition, Plaintiff’s claim that Defendants Dickson and Prince violated his constitutional rights because they did not have a copy of the arrest warrant with them when they came to his home is without merit. Police officers are not required to possess the actual warrant to arrest an individual. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 4(c)(3) and Ark. R. Crim. P. 4.3 (if officer does not possess the warrant, the officer must inform the defendant of the warrant’s existence and of the offense charged, and at defendant's request, show the original or duplicate original warrant as soon as possible).

The Court finds that Defendants Dickson and Prince had probable cause to come to Plaintiff's home to execute what they believed was a valid warrant. Therefore, Defendants did not violate Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights when they attempted to arrest him, and they are entitled to qualified immunity on this claim.

3. Search and Seizure – Defendants Dickson and Prince

Plaintiff also has the right to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures under the Fourth Amendment of the United States Constitution. Terry v. Ohio, 392 U.S. 1, 8 (1968). The Constitution prohibits unreasonable searches and seizures, but not all searches and seizures. Elkins v. United States, 364 U.S. 206, 222 (1960). In determining the reasonableness of a law enforcement practice, a court must weigh the public interest promoted by the practice against its intrusion upon the personal rights of the individual protected by the Fourth Amendment. Bell v. Wolfish, 441 U.S. 520, 558 (1979). "Whether an official's conduct was objectively reasonable is a question of law." Engleman v. Deputy Murray, 546 F.3d 944 (8th Cir. 2008). The law is clear that police officers may perform a protective sweep incident to an arrest to protect themselves or others when executing an arrest warrant. Lyles v. City of Barling, 17 F. Supp. 2d 848, 857 (W.D. Ark. 1998), aff'd, 181 F.3d 914 (8th Cir. 1999); U.S. v. Blake, 484 F.2d 50, 57 (8th Cir. 1973), cert. denied, 417 U.S. 949 (1974) (once inside, a quick and cursory viewing of the apartment is permissible to check for person who may present a security risk).

While the Court is required to view the facts in the light most favorable to Plaintiff, it must only take as true those assertions properly supported by the record. See Wilson v. Lawrence County, 260 F.3d 946, 951 (8th Cir. 2001). Here, Plaintiff's allegations are contradicted by the video evidence. The body camera footage from the evening of August 23, 2017, demonstrates Defendant Dickson and Prince entered Plaintiff's home through an open door and followed him using their flashlights to look around the living room and kitchen while Plaintiff searched for the warrant paperwork. Defendants did not "spring open" a screen door or "push" their way into Plaintiff's home. At no point in time did the Defendants push or physically touch Plaintiff. In addition, Defendant Dickson never told Plaintiff to "shut his mouth" nor did he indicate that he did not need a warrant to arrest Plaintiff. Further, the video does not show either Defendant Dickson or Prince picking up or searching the wallet belonging to Plaintiff's brother. Then, after following Plaintiff out of his home so he could look in his vehicle for the warrant paperwork, Defendants Dickson and Prince received a call involving an assault at another location and left Plaintiff's residence without arresting him. Although Plaintiff made comments to the effect that Defendants were "messaging" with him, Plaintiff never asked them to leave. As previously stated, the entire encounter lasted less than three (3) minutes.

The Court finds that the conduct of Defendants Dickson and Prince during the search of Plaintiff's home did not violate Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights. Therefore, Defendants are entitled to qualified immunity. Accordingly, Defendants Dickson and Prince are entitled to summary judgment on Plaintiff's individual capacity claims regarding the search of his home.

B. Official Capacity Claims

Plaintiff also asserts official capacity claims against Defendants Dickson, Prince and Bailey. Under § 1983, a defendant may be sued in either his individual capacity, or in his official capacity, or in both capacities. Gorman v. Bartch, 152 F.3d 907, 914 (8th Cir. 1998). With respect to the official capacity claims, they are "functionally equivalent to a suit against the employing governmental entity." Veatch v. Bartels Lutheran Home, 627 F.3d 1254, 1257 (8th Cir. 2010). In other words, Plaintiff's official capacity claims against Defendants Dickson, Prince and Bailey are treated as claims against their employer – the City of Malvern. See Murray v. Lene, 595 F.3d 868, 873 (8th Cir. 2010).

“[I]t is well established that a municipality cannot be held liable on a respondeat superior theory, that is, solely because it employs a tortfeasor.” Atkinson v. City of Mountain View, Mo., 709 F.3d 1201, 1214 (8th Cir. 2013). To establish Defendants’ official capacity liability under § 1983, “plaintiff must show that a constitutional violation was committed pursuant to an official custom, policy, or practice of the governmental entity.” Moyle v. Anderson, 571 F.3d 814, 817 (8th Cir. 2009) (citation omitted). To establish the existence of an unconstitutional policy, the plaintiff must point to “a deliberate choice of a guiding principle or procedure made by the municipal official who has final authority regarding such matters.” Mettler v. Whitley, 165 F.3d 1197, 1204 (8th Cir. 1999).

Here, Plaintiff has not alleged any custom or policy of the City of Malvern that contributed to a violation of Plaintiff’s civil rights. Instead, Plaintiff has simply reiterated his individual capacity claims against Defendants. Accordingly, Plaintiff’s official capacity claims fail as a matter of law.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Defendants’ Motion for Summary Judgment (ECF No. 55) is GRANTED. Plaintiff’s claims against Defendants Heath Dickson, Keith Prince, and Jim Bailey are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE. A judgment of even date shall issue.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 20th day of December 2018.

MEMORANDUM OPINION

This is a civil rights action filed pro se by Plaintiff, James L. Toney, under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Currently before the Court is a Motion for Summary Judgment filed by Defendants Heath Dickson, Keith Prince and Jim Bailey. (ECF No. 55). Plaintiff filed a Response (ECF No. 60) and Defendants filed a Reply. (ECF No. 63). The matter is ripe for consideration.

I. BACKGROUND

Plaintiff is currently an inmate in the Arkansas Department of Correction, Tucker Unit. This case arises from events that occurred on August 23, 2017, while Defendants Dickson and Prince were attempting to execute an arrest warrant on Plaintiff at his home. At the time of the incident, Defendants Dickson and Prince were officers with the City of Malvern Police Department and Bailey was the Assistant Chief of Police. Viewed in the light most favorable to Plaintiff, the relevant facts are as follows.¹

On August 23, 2017, Defendants Dickson and Prince arrived at Plaintiff's residence at 9:09 p.m. to execute an arrest warrant that came through the National Crime Information Center billfold. Mr. Toney told him not to touch it because the billfold belonged to someone else. (R. Dist. Ct. Docket No. 64). Mr. Toney then advised Officers Dickson and Prince that his billfold must be in his truck and he walked toward the front door. (R. Dist. Ct. Docket No. 57 ¶ 11).

Officers Dickson and Prince followed Mr. Toney outside of the home to his vehicle and watched Mr. Toney search the vehicle for the warrant. (R. Dist. Ct. Docket No. 57 ¶ 12). While Mr. Toney was looking in the front seat of his vehicle for the warrant papers, Officers Dickson and Prince received a call concerning an assault with physical injury at another location. (R. Dist. Ct. Docket No. 57 ¶ 13). The officers asked Mr. Toney to find the warrant so that they “didn’t have to take him in.” (R. Dist. Ct. Docket No. 57 ¶ 14). Officers Dickson and Prince then left Mr. Toney’s residence. The entire incident lasted just under three minutes.

Approximately twenty (20) minutes after Officers Dickson and Prince left Mr. Toney’s home, the warrant for Mr. Toney’s arrest that Officers Dickson and Prince had relied on was cleared rendering it inactive. (R. Dist. Ct. Docket No. 57 ¶ 16). After learning that the warrant had cleared the NCIC system that evening, Officers Dickson and Prince returned to Plaintiff’s residence. Officer Dickson knocked on Mr. Toney’s door, but Mr. Toney did not open it. Officer Dickson advised Mr. Toney through the closed door that the warrant was invalid, and that they would not be coming back. (R. Dist. Ct. Docket No. 57 ¶¶ 17-18).

Dear Mr. Toney:

Reference is made to your letter dated May 15, 2019, with enclosures, requesting information pertaining to you in the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) and a search of the FBI Criminal File for any information we maintain concerning you.

Although the Privacy Act of 1974 generally provides that an individual has a right to determine the identities of the recipients of information concerning him/her, the Act also allows certain agencies to exempt records from such access. Specifically, the criminal law enforcement records concerning an individual that are maintained by an agency whose principal function pertains to the enforcement of criminal laws can be exempted from disclosure. Pursuant to Title 5, United States Code (USC), Section 552a(j)(2), the Attorney General has designated as exempt the "Criminal Justice Information Services Division Records System (Justice/FBI-009)." With regard to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), this same information is being withheld, since it pertains to purely internal agency practices. Such material is not appropriate for discretionary release. [See 5 USC § 552(b)(2).] For further explanations concerning these exemptions, see the enclosed form "Explanation of Exemptions" and refer to Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 16.96(e).

Based on the above, your request for a listing of prior recipients must be denied. This denial should not be construed as either affirming or denying that any such disseminations have, in fact, been made. We are required to inform you that you may appeal this denial by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIA online portal by creating an account on the following website: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

Mr. James Leonard Toney, 107698

For your information, the FBI's Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division incorporates both the Fingerprint Identification Records System (FIRS) and the NCIC. The NCIC is a nationwide computerized information system established as a service to criminal justice agencies. Disclosure of information from the NCIC is for the purpose of providing information to authorized agencies to facilitate the apprehension of fugitives, the location of missing persons, the location and/or return of stolen property, and other similar criminal justice objectives. The NCIC is also a telecommunications link to an automated system of Identity History Summary (IdHS) information known as the Interstate Identification Index (III). Access to and use of the NCIC III is restricted to criminal justice agencies that perform the administration of criminal justice. The FBI's CJIS Division is the component within the FBI which maintains the NCIC, but does not make the actual entries into the NCIC. Agencies that enter records into the NCIC are responsible for their accuracy, timeliness, and completeness.

A search of the NCIC Wanted Persons File revealed no outstanding wants associated with your name and date of birth. Please be advised that local authorities are not mandated to submit want information to the NCIC, although they generally choose to do so. Therefore, the nonexistence of wants on the federal level does not preclude the possibility of wants or warrants on local levels.

Based on your compliance with the provisions of U.S. Department of Justice Order 556-73, enclosed is a copy of your FBI IdHS as it currently appears in the FBI Criminal File.

Sincerely yours,

Fabricated the only way to justify wrongfully coming to my home harassing me. The court have in their possession same summary request question that was given to the FBI-CISD Division - Summary Request now the court has been provided with the truth.

This not word of mouth like you except from the Appellees this is factual facts. He don't care who tell it, this is the second Federal Court that the Appellees has lied on the FBI NCIC.

In every department the county dispatch prints out the warrants Officer Dickson knew that it wasn't a warrant that is why Officer Dickson fabricated the NCIC lie Officer Dickson stated in the Incident Report that dispatch

Dear Mr. Toney:

Reference is made to your letter dated May 15, 2019, with enclosures, requesting information pertaining to you in the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) and a search of the FBI Criminal File for any information we maintain concerning you.

Although the Privacy Act of 1974 generally provides that an individual has a right to determine the identities of the recipients of information concerning him/her, the Act also allows certain agencies to exempt records from such access. Specifically, the criminal law enforcement records concerning an individual that are maintained by an agency whose principal function pertains to the enforcement of criminal laws can be exempted from disclosure. Pursuant to Title 5, United States Code (USC), Section 552a(j)(2), the Attorney General has designated as exempt the "Criminal Justice Information Services Division Records System (Justice/FBI-009)." With regard to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), this same information is being withheld, since it pertains to purely internal agency practices. Such material is not appropriate for discretionary release. [See 5 USC § 552(b)(2).] For further explanations concerning these exemptions, see the enclosed form "Explanation of Exemptions" and refer to Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 16.96(e).

Based on the above, your request for a listing of prior recipients must be denied. This denial should not be construed as either affirming or denying that any such disseminations have, in fact, been made. We are required to inform you that you may appeal this denial by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIA online portal by creating an account on the following website: <<https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

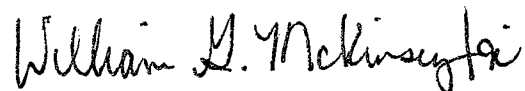

Mr. James Leonard Toney, 107698

For your information, the FBI's Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division incorporates both the Fingerprint Identification Records System (FIRS) and the NCIC. The NCIC is a nationwide computerized information system established as a service to criminal justice agencies. Disclosure of information from the NCIC is for the purpose of providing information to authorized agencies to facilitate the apprehension of fugitives, the location of missing persons, the location and/or return of stolen property, and other similar criminal justice objectives. The NCIC is also a telecommunications link to an automated system of Identity History Summary (IdHS) information known as the Interstate Identification Index (III). Access to and use of the NCIC III is restricted to criminal justice agencies that perform the administration of criminal justice. The FBI's CJIS Division is the component within the FBI which maintains the NCIC, but does not make the actual entries into the NCIC. Agencies that enter records into the NCIC are responsible for their accuracy, timeliness, and completeness.

A search of the NCIC Wanted Persons File revealed no outstanding wants associated with your name and date of birth. Please be advised that local authorities are not mandated to submit want information to the NCIC, although they generally choose to do so. Therefore, the nonexistence of wants on the federal level does not preclude the possibility of wants or warrants on local levels.

Based on your compliance with the provisions of U.S. Department of Justice Order 556-73, enclosed is a copy of your FBI IdHS as it currently appears in the FBI Criminal File.

Sincerely yours,

- (b) (1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive order;
- (b) (2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;
- (b) (3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on the issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;
- (b) (4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b) (5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b) (6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- ✓ (b) (7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b) (8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or
- (b) (9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

- (d) (5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;
- (j) (2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k) (1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;
- (k) (2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k) (3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;
- (k) (4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;
- (k) (5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k) (6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service the release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;
- (k) (7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

ORDER

Before the Court is Plaintiff's Motion to Set Aside Order Revoking IFP Status. (ECF No. 41). On May 8, 2018, the Court revoked Plaintiff's status as a pauper based on research indicating Plaintiff had previously filed three lawsuits which were dismissed as frivolous, malicious or failed to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. (ECF No. 37). In response to the order, Plaintiff filed the instant motion claiming that some of those lawsuits were filed by another inmate with the same name. The Court has reviewed the information presented by Plaintiff and determined that Plaintiff does not have three dismissals which would count as strikes against him.

Accordingly, Plaintiff's Motion to Set Aside Order Revoking IFP Status (ECF No. 41) is GRANTED. Plaintiff may continue to proceed in this lawsuit in forma pauperis.

The deadline to conduct discovery is extended until July 16, 2018. The deadline to file dispositive motions is extended until August 16, 2018.

IT IS SO ORDERED THIS 15th day of June 2018.

exempted from paying court fees. After the enactment of the PLRA, prisoners granted IFP status are required to pay the filing fee albeit in installments. 28 U.S.C. §1915(b). The PLRA provides that:

In no event shall a prisoner bring a civil action or appeal a judgment in a civil action or proceeding under this section if the prisoner has, on 3 or more prior occasions, while incarcerated or detained in any facility, brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury.

28 U.S.C. § 1915(g); see also Higgins v. Carpenter, 258 F.3d 797, 800-801 (8th Cir. 2001) (holding that §1915(g) is constitutional). This provision has commonly become known as the “three strikes rule” or the “three strikes provision.”

In this case, the three strikes rule applies to Plaintiff. He has at least three previous actions that qualify as strikes against him under 28 U.S.C. §1915(g). #1 ONE Eastern District Toney, et al. v. Norris, et al., Civil No. 5:95-cv-00021 (E.D. Ark.)(Report and Recommendation entered on January 30, 1995, recommending dismissal for failure to state an actionable claim. Adopted by Order and Judgment entered on February 14, 1995. Dismissal affirmed on appeal May 25, 1995);¹ #2 TWO Eastern District Toney v. Hunter, et al, Civil No. 4:02-cv-00286 (E.D. Ark.)(Report and Recommendation enter on June 5, 2002, recommending dismissal for failure to state a claim and that the dismissal count as a strike. Adopted by Order and Judgment entered July 2, 2002, stating among other things, that the dismissal counts as a strike. Appeal dismissed for failure to prosecute on November 10, 2002); #3 THREE Western District Toney v. Golden, et al., Civil No. 6:02-cv-06125 (W.D. Ark.)(Report and Recommendation entered on August 9, 2002, recommending dismissal on the grounds the claims are frivolous and fail to state claims upon which relief may be granted. Adopted by order entered August 27, 2002.

¹The PLRA applies to dismissals of cases as frivolous or for failure to state a claim prior to the PLRA's enactment on April 26, 1996. See e.g., In re Tyler, 110 F.3d 1032, 1036 (8th Cir. 1997)(applying three strikes rule to actions from 1992, 1993, and 1995).
