Comes now the petitioner Troy Terrell Pope petition for rehearing is presented in good faith and not for delay to correct and resubmit. The petitioner has been pursuing to enforce his grounds, and standing with diligents the following grounds are specific not conclusions and appear in the records. Preclusion of Grounds. Why the new ground or grounds were not known see exhibit, A pages, 1-9 and grounds one, two and three the petitioner presents the following:
Grounds

"Ineffectiveness Assistance of Counsel" James D. Sears failed to challenge juror Barbara Edwards who during voir dire examination of the venire failed to respond to specific questions, which trial counsel was informed by the petitioner that Ms. Edwards had failed to respond to or answer, Ms. Edwards had knowledge of this petitioner and had prior contact with the petitioner on numerous occasions.

And had even been given information concerning the case by the petitioner, he even had problems with Ms. Edwards concerning the release of his social security benefits and back pay, the petitioner trial counsel write a letter to inform Ms. Edwards confirm that the petitioner needed his social security benefits to pay attorney fee. However trial counsel made no attempt to challenge juror Barbara Edwards for cause. B. pages, 40, 43, 46, and 47. Trial Transcript.

The State of Alabama prosecutor, Nikki Patterson assistant district attorney did not have subject matter jurisdiction over the exercise of jurisdiction over the offence charged, because Patterson realized that the petitioner in this case was incarcerated when the alleged crimes happened. Patterson changed dates, location and victims statements, on the amended 404 (B) evidence.

Supplemented the fact finding procedure under color of authority of 404 (B) with an amendment to the dates of the alleged offence, invaded factual province! Mark top right hand corner at pages 114 and 115 states motion to introduce evidence under rule 404 (B) issues 1-7, and the states amended motion to introduce evidence under rule 404 (B) issues 1-7 altered the morning of trial pages 120 and 121. Openly and covertly without attention to the taut restrictions that govern Patterson action by rule or law, invalidated the 404 (B) evidence.

Patterson invaded the factual province of the alleged crime to establish jurisdiction over the offence charged. Patterson aided to fabrication of evidence, trial counsel knew it! The administrative law judge Roderick P. Stout knew of structural defects that effect the subject matter of the offence and changing statutes know lack of authority! Fundamental defects that effected the verdict, procedure and the petitioner vested right to due process of law U.S. court. 14th amendment. "Bead reporter's official transcript on appeal" on prosecutor Nikki Patterson. Grounds

"Compulsory Process witnesses"

Failed to call witnesses in the petitioner's own behalf who were available and some even present in court on the days of trial, also his right to compulsory process to bring forth otherwise hostile witnesses to, trial counsel refused to call witness to the stand to give testimony that was relevant. These witnesses had personal knowledge and information based on their direct contact and communication with the alleged victim, counsel never subpoenaed other or contacted witnesses that he knew about.

In violation of the petitioner's sixth amendment right to have witnesses in his defence and in fact misled the petitioner into believing that all witnesses would be called to testify. The one witness that was put on the stand to testify, where by on direct examination of trial counsel proceeded to insufficiently conduct a direct examination and immediately turn the witness over to the state. Where by the state proceeded with a badgering cross-examination of the witness, and without conducting any re-direct examination or corroborating evidence or testimony to support the proffered testimony and defense of the petitioner. Read trial transcript pages 148-156.

The petitioner has actively pursued his judicial remedies but there was defective pleading to prevent a grave miscarriage of justice where there was deliberate plan and carefully executed scheme to defraud the courts, the claims defences and other legal contentions here in are warranted by existing law, and are non frivolous the factual contentions have evidentiary support and likely to have more evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigations and order of discovery.
