AFFIDAVIT/CERTIFICATE OF MARK STINSON
Reg. #29908-076

July 30, 2020

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That I Mark Stinson the appellant in the legal appellate case style United States of America v. Mark Stinson Case Number 2:16cr20247-1, Appeal No. 18-5272 denied. Now style Mark Stinson v. DeWayne Hendrix, warden case no. 2:19-cv-00016 Federal Habeas Corpus.

That on November 12, 2016, a bill was return by a Federal Grand Jury against Mark Stinson and his wife Jayton Stinson.

That Mark Stinson proceed to a Jury Trial where he was found guilty and Sentence to 75 months, and he appealed. The government then superseded and sealed the indictment.

That The Court appointed one Mr. Arthur Quinn, to represent appellant in the U.S. District Court.

Through pre-trial up and until trial and throughout the trial it's been a serious conflict of interest between counsel Quinn, and defendant/appellant.

That this conflict of interest was also brought to the trial Judge John Fowlkes who denied defendant request to terminate the legal service of Mr. Arthur Quinn not only once but twice. But having the unwarranted and very rude attorney representing defendant was like having no counsel at all.

That Counsel continue to say to defendant that the Jury are going to bury you and there is nothing we can do. Counsel refuse to call witnesses and to interview, investigate, or to marshal a defense. The counsel failed to follow upon the discovery which The Government did not supply all the discovery.

That counsel render ineffective Assistance of counsel to defendant and cause defendant to be convicted for lack of his ability to preform.

That counsel failed to call the U.S. Veterans Affairs Doctor to give testimony about defendant's Mental Condiction.

That counsel failed to advised the Court of Defendant's Mental condiction and that he suffered from PTSD.

That the Court read the instruction wrong, to the jury.

That this motion for rehearing en banc is made in the interest of justice and is not meant to delay the proceeding.

That The Court, The Government, and The Counsels failed to give the defendant a fair and honest legal service. This statement is giving pursuant to title 28 U.S.C. §1746.
