OFFICE OF THE CLERK
SUPREME COURT, U.S.

PETITION FOR REHEARING

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 44.2, Petitioner, Kimberley McQueary-Layne, respectfully and prayerfully moves this Court to grant this petition for rehearing and consider the Supplemental Brief in support of the original Petition for Writ of Certiorari, as the information in the brief is 'new' information and pertinent to this matter, and was unavailable at the time of original filing of petition. Petition was denied on October 5th, 2020.

Petitioner had filed Supplemental Brief in support of Petition for Writ of Certiorari, on September 18, 2020 at 3:59pm, in person, at the police office. [see attached copy of Supplemental Brief given to the officer]. This submission was in support of Case Conference review on September 29, 2020.

Per Clerk's Office, Supplemental Brief was never received, and per Clerk "Susan", via telephone conversation on October 7th, at 10:02am, there is no record of document having been received, although documents given to officer, were initialed on confirmation sticker. Per same clerk, brief would have been filed timely for review by Honorable Justices, for Conference on September 29, 2020. Further, Petitioner never received brief returned to address of record for correction.

Additionally, out of an abundance of caution, in light of the COVID-19 pandemic, Petitioner wants to ensure the Honorable Justices have had opportunity to review the Supplemental Brief, in the event it was lost or misplaced, due to processing of COVID-19 documents.
