ORDER APPOINTING COUNSEL

The Defendant in the above numbered and styled case, which cause is now pending before this Court, and upon his oath stated that he is wholly destitute of means to hire counsel for representation.

Based on the information provided by the above mentioned Defendant, the Court made the determination that this Defendant is too poor to employ counsel. Furthermore, the Court FINDS that the Defendant has requested that previously appointed defense counsel Mr. Lee Westmoreland be removed from the case and that new defense counsel be appointed to represent the Defendant. In addition to the Defendant's request to have Mr. Westmoreland removed from the case, the Court also FINDS there is good cause to have new defense counsel appointed.

Therefore, Dan Simmons, a practicing attorney of this Court, is appointed to defend him, and that the Honorable Lee Westmoreland, previously appointed counsel, is released from further responsibility for the defense of this cause, and from further liability to the Defendant for the defense of this cause.

SIGNED AND ENTERED this the 13th day of June, 20 18.
