Re: William Clyde Gibson v. Indiana, Nos. 19-8903 and 19-8904
CAPITAL CASES

Dear Mr. Harris,

As counsel of record for the respondent in the two above referenced capital cases, I respectfully request a thirty-day extension of time within which to file the State of Indiana's briefs in opposition to Mr. Gibson's petitions for a writ of certiorari. This is respondent's first request, and it is made in light of the assigned attorney's caseload in other matters despite having given this matter priority. The briefs in opposition are currently due on August 5, 2020, and this extension would make them due on September 4, 2020.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Stephen R. Creason".

Stephen R. Creason
Chief Counsel for Appeals
Counsel of Record for Respondent
