CERTIFICATE OF INTERESTED PERSONS AND CORPORATE DISCLOSURE AND AFFILIATIONS STATEMENT

Petitioners are not affiliated with any publicly held entity; nor do they have, any parent Corporation's affiliations. Petitioners do not own 10% or more of stock as parties partially or as fully owned entities in or by a publicly entity.

APPLICATION TO EXTEND OR ENLARGEMENT TIME

Comes Now, Petitioners, Christopher Lawrence as the assigned and others as named of Pro ses litigants to the forgoing Writ and Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2101, humbly request the Supreme Court Justice to grant leave for an “Extension of time” to file the Appeal under a Writ Certiorari. Petitioners seek an extension of time due to Circuit Court forwarded the Opinion to an old mailing address that was not received until September 3, 2019. Petitioners show they need additional time to understand the requirements to properly file their petition and for Bindery Services.

Pro ses further advances 11th Circuit refused to address the compelling questions presented and have left open impressions that once that Court reviews the fundamental arguments involving jurisdiction an antiquated presumption was applied in erred of all Plaintiffs being a part of the claims by and through enjoined parties. See attached Exhibit 1 mandate

The 11th Circuit Court often time does not advise or make language clear and plain relative to non-attorneys as Pro ses when they should file their appeal to the Supreme Court and that could cause a failure to file untimely.

Petitioners contends further withholding information or the Circuit Court’s ambiguity language in their correspondent as to when the Petitioners could advance their case is deliberate intentions to impede Petitioners rights of redress and therefore cause a deprivation of due process as overtone of denied justice and access to this court.

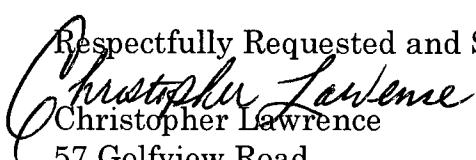

Petitioners believes that it would duly disadvantage them to expect meeting the filing time period when the conditions are such that caused the delay in receiving the Opinion for the Circuit through three different address changes. The system factually shows that the initial address of correspondence was 2740 Highpoint Road Snellville, Georgia 30078. Petitioner acting as the party responsible moved to 2974 Jenkins Drive, Snellville, Georgia 30078, Petitioner Chris Lawrence moved to 4486 Cherokee Drive, Lot 44, Douglasville, Georgia 30134, and finally, Petitioner CL relocated back to Chicago at 57 Golfview Road, Carpentersville, Illinois 60110. It was within the forgoing movements over the past year that delayed receipt and notice from the Circuit Court that caused the delay and therefore Petitioners respectfully asks time to address the 11th Circuit Court’s opinion.

\Conclusion

Wherefore, Petitioners have presented the forgoing reasons for requesting additional time for filing their Writ in good faith. Petitioner asks the Administrative Court to consider the application for extension before the filing date deadline and hope the all conditions beyond their controls be considered as well.

Petitioner respectfully requests that Justice Thomas to consider the reasons that would impact the case going forward under the basis of minimal jurisdiction and joined parties to the cases were never objected to real parties in interest. Petitioners ask the High Court for leave in the opportunity to present the errors made in unto correction and justice as the objectivity of the Court when a death has occurred and the Respondent attempts to use niceties of law over negligence in a duty to perform

Respectfully Requested and Submitted,
