SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

Lasher v. Stavis, et al 18-2039

FILED
AUG 26 2019
OFFICE OF THE CLERK
SUPREME COURT, U.S.

MOTION for an EXTENSION of TIME to file the writ of certiorari

Now comes the Plaintiff, Lena Lasher, through pro-se representation, hereby respectfully request the Honorable Court to allow her a sixty (60) days extension to file the writ of certiorari due to:

1. A car accident on April 17, 2019 which the Plaintiff is still recovering from.
2. The Plaintiff's schedule is still filled with doctors' appointments; she still needs to see specialists.
3. Also, due to the Plaintiff's mother ailing health:
  - A. the Plaintiff was approved to be off of work for most of August 2019 to attend to her mother's medical needs.
  - B. The Plaintiff, including her mother, will be out of state most of September; the Plaintiff is awaiting approval from work for the requested time off.

Due to the aforementioned, the Plaintiff is requesting a sixty (60) days extension of time to file the writ of certiorari.

Please see Attached:

1. April 11, 2019, 2019 order
2. June 3, 2019 order denying the petition for rehearing en banc / Reconsideration en banc (hh)

The Plaintiff thanks the Court in advance for its understanding and consideration.

Respectfully submitted, August 26, 2019
