10 Arthur Lopez

 12 v. Appellant/Plaintiff
 13 Cheryl Lopez
 14
 15 Respondent/Defendant(s).

CASE NUMBER:

California Supreme Court: S257650

Appellant, Arthur Lopez's
 Request For a 60 Day Extension
 To File Petition For Writ of Certiorari
 To March 6, 2020

(Enter document title in the space provided above)

17 Most Honorable United States Supreme Court Justice
 18 Elena Kagan,

21 Please accept Appellant Arthur Lopez's
 22 First Request For a 60 Day Extension
 23 To File a Petition For Writ of Certiorari on 24 this case for Good Cause. The existing 25 deadline to file the Petition is January 6, 2020
 26 since the Denial Order from the California
 27 Supreme Court was issued on October 9, 2019 (Exh A)
 28 by Chief Justice Tani Cantil-Sakauye. Hence,

1 the new deadline, with your granting of 2 this request, would be March 6, 2020.
3 Moreover, this request is made with Good Cause 4 since the underlying issues relate to an 5 ongoing Custody-Family Matter that stems from 6 a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage Petition
7 Appellant Filed on or about February 16, 2016.
8 In addition, Appellant has not been permitted
9 to see or even speak to his four children
10 since November 22, 2015. They are now
11 17, 14, 13 and 8 years of age. In fact, the 12 issue at hand involves the waiver of transcript 13 fees that have been denied along with the 14 cost for a "Reunification Program" that was 15 recommended by the Superior Court judge presiding
16 over the custody matters. All the while the 17 Superior Court is very much aware of Appellants
18 lack of employment income and his Permanent
19 Disabilities / Permanent Injuries since the Fee
20 Waiver Applications for court filing fees have 21 been granted and in addition waiver of a court
22 expert previously has been granted back in July of 2016.
23 Furthermore, the entire costs for the "Program" is in 24 excess of $6-7,000.- and the Respondent who has had 25 100% custody of the Four Children since the 26 Separation, 11/22/15, and who is gainfully employed 27 with over $60-70 K (sixty to seventy thousand dollars) in 28 annual salary has been relieved of ^{all} any of the costs for this Reunification Program. It would seem the Superior Court is imposing a "Pay to Play" tariff of sorts.

Nevertheless, Appellant remains without legal representation and currently is awaiting the California Supreme Court's decision on a Habeas Corpus Petition submitted in Early September 2019. This matter is relevant since the issues involved in the Civil Rights violations referenced in the Habeas Corpus case # S257770 is what gave way to many of the existing cases.

Moreover, this Court has set on October 27, 2019 deadline to submit Appellants Petition on the Matter of Arthur Lopez v. "MUF6 Union Bank" #19A240 and under Docket # 19A148 Appellant must re-submit the Brief by October 28, 2019.

Furthermore Appellant has been granted an extension under Docket # 19A358 to submit Petition by November 16, 2019.

Lastly Appellant is engaged in a Litigation over his injuries @ the U.S. Court of Appeals 9th Cir. and has been ordered to submit a Supplemental Brief by November 20, 2019 and Appellant has a trial set to commence 1/20/2020 on a State Civil matter against the Irvine Co. LLC, the while also unrepresented on these Civil matters @ the U.S. District Court involving the State of CA/Superior Court

② Ca Court of Appeals and ③ HSBC Bank USA.

In summary, Appellant remains with physical limitations due to his permanent injuries / permanent disabilities, ^{while} under the care of medical professionals including Dr. Philip Madrid and previously consulted Surgeon Samuel Bederman (Spine Specialist)

For all these reasons and many more, Appellant Humbly seeks your Honors granting of this 60 Day Extension to file a Petition for Writ of Certiorari by March 6, 2020

Respectfully submitted,

Arthur Lopez
