On Appeal from the United States Court of Appeals
For the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals No.19-3056, 19-2561, 19-2591 & 19-2923

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE PETITION FOR LEAVE TO FILE WRIT OF CERTIORARI

NOW COMES the Petitioners Christopher Stoller, 70, a disabled person, a protected person, under the American's for Disability Act (ADA) a protected person, under the American's for Disability Act (ADA) and Michael Stoller 27 a disabled person, a protected person, under the American's for Disability Act (ADA) a protected person, under the American's for Disability Act (ADA) requests leave of Court for a sixty (60) day extension of time to file a Petition for Writ of Certiorari and states as follows:

Petitioner moves this Court under Supreme Court Rule 13 (5) for an extension of time to file Petitioner's Petition for Leave to File Writ of Certiorari .

The Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals issued final appealable decision(s) in related appeals: No.19-3056 Appendix 1, 19-2561 Appendix 2, 19-2591 Appendix 3 & 19-2923 Appendix 4:

The Seventh Circuit Court of appeals denied the Petitioners Appeals on October 24, and 25th, 2019 See attached final orders of the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals No.19-3056 Appendix 1, 19-2561 Apendix 2, 19-2591 Appendix 3 & 19-2923 Appendix 4 attached hereto and made a part here of.:

The erroneous rulings Appendix 1, 19-2561 Apendix 2, 19-2591 Appendix 3 & 19-2923 Appendix 4 are more than just bad decisions but will result in harmful precedent that should not be ignored because it conflicts with the Illinois and Federal Constitutions prohibition against laws abridging freedom of speech and the ability of citizens to petition the government, including the courts, for the redress of grievances. Ill.Const.1970, art. I, §§ 4, 12; U.S. Const. Amd. I.

The Bill of Rights to the Illinois Constitution provides that “all persons may speak, write and publish freely,” Ill.Const.1970, art. I, § 4, and that every person shall find a certain remedy in the laws for all injuries and wrongs which he receives. He shall obtain justice by law, freely, completely, and promptly,” Id. § 12.

The First Amendment, applicable to the States under the Fourteenth Amendment, states that Congress shall make no law abridging freedom of speech and “the right of the people peaceably to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.” U.S. Const. Amd. I.

.Petitioner’s motion for an extension is necessary in order to obtain counsel to make his case for Leave to File a Writ of Certiorari .

Petition for Writ of Certiorari is important and useful because of the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals fundamental mistake(s) of law or faulty reasoning in their opinions. The Petitioner(s) have good reason to believe that the high court will want to correct the lower courts error(s) in favor of the Petitioner(s), which affects every person<sup>1</sup> in the United States<sup>2</sup>.

Petitioner(s) are disabled. Petitioner(s) are requesting a 60 extension of time to retain counsel in their appeal to overturn the erroneous order issued by the Seven Circuit Court of Appeals. Petitioners' appeal have merit and raises interesting questions of law, which the High Court will want to hear.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner(s) are thus requesting a 60 day extension of time, to obtain counsel in order to file a Writ of Certiorari up and until March 15, 2020
What ever other relief that the court deems fit and proper.
