

No. 19-1192

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE SIXTH CIRCUIT

SAMANTHA DELANE RAJAPAKSE,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

V.

CREDIT ACCEPTANCE CORPORATION, et al.,

Defendants-Appellees.

FILED
Oct 02, 2019
DEBORAH S. HUNT, Clerk

ORDER

Proceeding without counsel, the plaintiff appeals a district court judgment dismissing her civil rights action asserting claims under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the Truth in Lending Act, the Fair Credit Billing Act, the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, and the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act. On August 28, 2019, a single judge of this court denied the plaintiff leave to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis, directing her to pay the $505 appellate filing fee to the district court within 30 days. The plaintiff now moves to hold the payment of the filing fee in abeyance pending the disposition of her writ of certiorari by the Supreme Court of the United States.

The plaintiff's motion is DENIED. The payment of the appellate filing fee is a prerequisite to the processing of the appeal. If the filing fee remains unpaid 14 days from this order, this appeal will be dismissed for want of prosecution.

ENTERED PURSUANT TO RULE 45(a)
RULES OF THE SIXTH CIRCUIT

Wm L. Hunt

Deborah S. Hunt, Clerk

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE SIXTH CIRCUIT

SAMANTHA RAJAPAKSE
APPELLANT

RECEIVED

SEP 27 2019

DEBORAH S. HUNT, Clerk

v.

CASE: 19-1192

CREDIT ACCEPTANCE CORP, ETAL
APPELLEE

PETITION FOR EXTENSION OR STAY OF FILING FEE

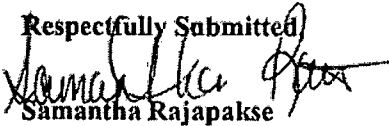

TO THE SIXTH CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES, PETITIONER, SAMANTHA RAJAPAKSE do hereby petition this court for a stay in the filing fees to enter the court of Appeals against Defendant, Appellant under Rule 6, Credit Acceptance Corporation and all parties involved. Petitioner has filed for a Writ of Certiorari with the Supreme Court of the United States on the issues before this court.

The court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit has ignored the lower court judicial misconduct, 455 and 241 which of an appointee of the President of the United States to deny Petitioner her 14th Amendment under the Due Process Clause. The Appellate Court has denied Petitioner the right to appeal as a matter of right under F.R.A.P 4. This case brought before the Sixth Circuit Appellate Court Wadlington v. Credit Acceptance, 76 F. 2d 103 No. 94-2143 Decided February 21, 1996 which is far departed from this case under review.

Petition states the District Court of Eastern Michigan and the Sixth Circuit has departed from the laws enacted by the United States Congress and previous rulings from previous Sixth Circuit, other Appellate Court of the United States, Supreme Court of the United States, and the United States Constitution. Decision from the lower court and the Appellate Court has raised issues ripped before the Supreme Court of the United States on Judicial Misconduct and consumer law protection which enacted by the United Sates Congress.

IT IS THERFORE, PETITION

1. The extension of paying the filing fees are stay or extended until Petitioner deposition of Writ of Certiorari before the Supreme Court of the United States.

Respectfully Submitted

Samantha Rajapakse
Pro se/ Appellant
708 Marley Way
Chattanooga, TN 37412

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

A copy of this pleading was mailed to the opposing counsel, Stephen W. King for Credit Acceptance on this 25th day of September, 2019 by United States Postal Service.

Respectfully,

Samantha Rajapakse