JEFFREY CLARK,

PETITIONER,

v.

STATE OF LOUISIANA,

RESPONDENT.

Unopposed Application for Extension of Time
In Which to File a
*Petition for a Writ of Certiorari

To: The Honorable Justice Samuel A. Alito, Jr., Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and Circuit Justice for the Fifth Circuit, which includes the State of Louisiana.

Pursuant to this Court's Rules 13.5, 22, and 30.3, applicant, Jeffrey Clark, respectfully requests an extension of 13 days in which to file his petition for writ of certiorari resulting in a due date of January 17, 2020, challenging the decisions of the Louisiana Supreme Court, State v. Clark, 2019 La. Lexis 1618 (6/28/2019) rehearing denied State v. Clark, 2019 La. LEXIS 1932 (La., Sept. 6, 2019) on remand from this Court in Clark v. Louisiana, 138 S. Ct. 2671, 201 L. Ed. 2d 1066, 2018 U.S. LEXIS 3953 (U.S., June 25, 2018) seeking certiorari from State v. Clark, 220 So. 3d 583, 2016 La. LEXIS 2512 (La., Dec. 19, 2016).

On November 6, counsel has filed a motion seeking a sixty day extension of time in which to file a petition for certiorari. On November 13, 2010, Justice Alito granted the application in part extending the time to file until January 4, 2020. As a result of ongoing work obligations, counsel has not been able to fully turn to Mr. Clark's petition for certiorari. Consistent with Rule 13.5, this application is being filed at least 10 days before the due date. Counsel seeks an additional 13 days from January 4, 2020, in which to file his petition for certiorari, rendering it due January 17, 2020. The delay will not impede resolution of Mr. Clark's claims, but will allow counsel to fully consider the issues involved.

Petitioner invokes this Court's jurisdiction to grant the Petition for a Writ of Certiorari to the Louisiana Supreme Court on the basis of 28 U.S.C. § 1257.

In support of this application, counsel states as follows:

1. Mr. Clark is indigent, was appointed counsel at trial, and has been represented on appeal throughout as an indigent person.
2. Petitioner's conviction and death sentence was initially affirmed by the Louisiana Supreme Court on December 12, 2016. See State v. Clark, 2012-0508 (La. 12/19/16), 220 So. 3d 583. Counsel raised four issues in the petition for certiorari including:
  4. Whether the Louisiana Supreme Court's rule -- that an indigent defendant must accept his trial counsel's decision to concede his guilt of second degree murder over his express objections or represent himself -- vitiates the voluntariness of petitioner's waiver of counsel?

State v. Clark, Pet. for Certiorari, 16-9541.

3. This Court, on June 25, 2018, issued an opinion granting certiorari, vacating the decision below, and remanding the case:

On petition for writ of certiorari to the Supreme Court of Louisiana. Motion of petitioner for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and petition for writ of certiorari granted. Judgment vacated, and case remanded to the Supreme Court of Louisiana for further consideration in light of McCoy v. Louisiana, 584 U.S. ___, 138 S. Ct. 1500, 200 L. Ed. 2d 821 (2018).

Clark v. Louisiana, 138 S. Ct. 2671 (2018).

4. Argument on issue was considered by the Louisiana Supreme Court on March 26, 2019. Counsel argued that the Farettta colloquy engaged in by the District Court was constitutionally invalid, because the district court was under the view of law then prevailing in Louisiana – that it was counsel not the client’s decision whether to waive culpability and concede guilt.

5. The Louisiana Supreme Court rendered its opinion on June 28, 2019. See Appendix A, Pet. App. 1a-8a, Opinion of the Louisiana Supreme Court in State v. Clark, (La. 6/28/2019) ___ So 2d. ___, 2019 La. Lexis 1618.

6. The Louisiana Supreme Court resolved the case against petitioner by holding observing that this Court’s decision in McCoy v. Louisiana did not change the analysis of the Farettta colloquy:

We previously approved of this extensive Farettta colloquy in State v. Clark, 12-0508, pp. 62–63 (La. 12/19/16), 220 So.3d 583, 637–639, and the United States Supreme Court’s decision in McCoy v. Louisiana, 584 U.S. ___, 138 S.Ct. 1500, — L.Ed.2d — (2018), does not render it deficient even in hindsight.

State v. Clark, Appendix A, pet. app. at 8a. It appears from initial review that the Louisiana Supreme Court failed to follow the directives of this Court on remand. Additional time is necessary to determine whether other courts have conducted the analysis foregone by the Louisiana Supreme Court.

7. While the Opinion was a per curiam, it was joined by Justice Guidry who had resigned his position prior to the issuance of the opinion.

8. Rehearing was sought based upon, inter alia, the Court's reliance on an opinion signed by a Justice who had resigned his position and taken a position on the federal bench, which under state law prohibited him from participating in state court determinations.

9. Rehearing was denied on September 6, 2019. See Appendix B, Pet. App. 10a, Louisiana Supreme Court decision Denying Rehearing in State v. Clark, 2019 La. LEXIS 1932 (La., Sept. 6, 2019).

10. Counsel must also assess the continued validity of the question in his initial petition:

Whether the Louisiana Supreme Court erred in upholding petitioner's death sentence, when the jury made only one of the two statutory required jury findings beyond a reasonable doubt?
Clark v. Louisiana, 16-9541, Pet. for Certiorari, at i (1).

11. Given the ascension of Louisiana Supreme Court Justice Guidry to the Eastern District of Louisiana prior to the issuance of the opinion in this case, counsel must also assesses the ripeness of claims under Yovino v. Rizo, 139 S. Ct. 706 (2019) and Williams v. Pennsylvania, 136 S. Ct. 1899 (2016).

12. Counsel has contacted counsel for Respondents, who indicates that she has no opposition to the request for additional time.

13. For these reasons, the applicant respectfully requests the entry of an order extending his time to file for a writ of certiorari until January 17, 2020.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the petition for writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully Submitted,
