Re: Michael Deuchel 10/8/61

To Whom It May Concern,

Mr. Deuchel is currently under my care and has been a patient of mine since 2016. Doing a recent consultation and re-evaluation, I have recommended for him to undergo a revision cranioplasty surgery. We have submitted the urgent treatment authorization request with Medi-Cal and await authorization and anticipate scheduling surgery for November 18, 2019. He needs to be excused from all aspects of litigation starting on September 18, 2019, due to the symptoms he has from his current diagnoses. He will also need to be excused for six weeks while he recovers from his brain surgery.

Thank you for your understanding and please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,
