

IN THE
SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

---

No. 19A78

CHARLES R. HUNTER,

Applicant,

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA; STERLING MORTGAGE AND INVESTMENT COMPANY

Respondents.

SECOND APPLICATION TO THE HON. SONIA
SOTOMAYOR FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE A PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE
UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE SIXTH CIRCUIT

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 13(5), Charles R. Hunter (“Applicant”), hereby moves for a 15-day extension of time, to and including September 27, 2019, to file a petition for a writ of certiorari. Unless an extension is granted, the deadline for filing the petition for certiorari is September 12, 2019.

In support of this request, Applicant state as follows:

1. The United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit rendered its decision on April 30, 2019. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1254(1).
2. This appeal involves whether the government waived sovereign immunity under the federal quiet title statute, 28 U.S.C. § 2410, where Applicant did not retain a current interest in the subject property. Both the district court and the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals held that Applicant could not quiet title to the subject property under 28 U.S.C. § 2410 because he did not retain such an interest.

3. Between now and the petition's current due date, Applicants' counsel, Daniel W. Weininger, has substantial briefing obligations, including the drafting of the appellant's brief in Estate of Richie Majors v. Gerlach, No. 19-1457 (6th Cir.), which is currently due on September 3, 2019. The appeal involves a multi-defendant 42 U.S.C. § 1983 litigation against medical staff at the Michigan Department Corrections for the wrongful death of an inmate.

4. Applicant requests a modest extension for counsel to prepare a petition that fully addresses the complex issues raised by the decision below and frames those issues in a manner that will be most helpful to the Court.

5. Applicant fully understands that this the last extension that may be granted under the Court's rules.

For the foregoing reasons, Applicant requests that an extension of time to and including September 27, 2019, be granted within which Applicant may file a petition for a writ of certiorari.

August 30, 2019

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL W. WEININGER
