

194801

United States 9th Circuit Supreme Court

FILED

DEC 05 2019

OFFICE OF THE CLERK
SUPREME COURT U.S.

RE. James Junious Johnson

Commonwealth of Virginia Record No. 1905916

Motion for extension of time

The defendant comes before this Court requesting an extension for time to file an appeal under the habeas corpus statute.

The defendant was convicted in the Louisiana circuit court. An appeal was filed by the defendant's lawyer which was denied in the Virginia Supreme Court on 10-9-19. The defendant was not aware on the ruling until 11-12-19. The defendant relied totally on the defense council to represent him in every stage of the trial and P.O. process.

The defendant can not read or write and has no or limited understanding of the court proceedings. The defendant is a laymen of this court and is filing this as pro-se with help from another person with limited knowledge also.

The defendant strongly moves this court for a thirty day extension so that the defendant can retrieve his court files from his former attorney so that he may file a writ of habeas corpus in this court.

The defendant strongly requests that this motion for a extension of time of thirty days.

The defendant declares that all this information is true to the best of his knowledge.

James J. Johnson
12-4-2019
James J. Johnson