

REQUEST TO EXCEED PAGE LIMIT FOR EXTRAORDINARILY COMPELLING REASONS

COMES NOW, the Petitioner Robert N. Brooks, acting on his own behalf (Pro-se) and would respectfully request this Honorable Court for extension of page limit to file his Petition for Writ of Prohibition and/or Mandamus, for review by this Court of the denial by the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit of Petitioner's lack of subject matter jurisdiction claim.

This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1251 and Rule 13.5 of the U.S. Supreme Court Rules.

Petitioner submits that he is unskilled in the science of American jurisprudence, and has learned what little he knows of the law through empiricism. As a pro-se litigant, Petitioner is overwhelmed by the complexity of our legal and judicial system in preparing and filing his petition. Petitioner has to also prepare and file two cases which have been consolidated into one by the Appellate Court.

In addition, because of the difficulty of having to prepare and file this Writ while simultaneously learning the laws and rules governing such filings, Petitioner would respectfully request this Honorable Court to grant him the additional page allotment.

Respectfully Submitted,

Robert N. Brooks, Pro-Se
