

IN THE
SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

ALFRED DECLOUET

NUMBER _____

VERSUS

STATE OF LOUISIANA

PETITION FOR EXTENSION TO FILE WRITS

NOW INTO COURT, comes Petitioner/Applicant, Alfred Declouet, who respectfully submits the following, to wit:

1.

On September 17, 2019, the Louisiana Supreme Court denied the Petitioner's application for supervisory and/or remedial writs, pursuant to La.C.Cr.P. art. 930.8. (See attached per curiam.)

2.

The Petitioner believing that their decision was issued in error, filed into the Supreme Court a Petition for Writ of Error Coram Nobis, therein, the Petitioner establishes that the basis of the Court's findings are in error and completely substantiated by law and jurisprudence. (See attached Petition for Writ of Error Coram Nobis.)

3.

The Petitioner being aware of the time constraints between denial of the Louisiana Supreme Court and the seeking of writs in this Court, feel that out of an abundance of caution, an extension is necessary in order to assure that any application that may be filed is not tolled. In Consideration of the vague, but strict, Louisiana Supreme Court rule concerning the request for rehearing, or review upon denial of a writ application.

WHEREFORE, the Petitioner, in consideration of his timely filed Writ of Error Coram Nobis in the Louisiana Supreme Court, as well as this timely request for extension, prays that the Court will grant him an extension to file any writ into this Court.

Date: December 9, 2019

Respectfully Submitted,

ALFRED DECLOUET, No. 431083
