Government response to coronavirus pandemic in Illinois

Summary of changes to election dates and procedures

Illinois modified its absentee/mail-in voting and candidate filing procedures for the November 3, 2020, general election as follows:

- Absentee/mail-in voting: Mail-in ballot applications were sent to all registered voters in the general election who cast ballots in the 2018 general election, the 2019 consolidated election, or the 2020 primary election.
- Candidate filing procedures: The following changes were made to the filing procedures for unaffiliated and new-party candidates: petition signature requirements were reduced to 10 percent of their original numbers; candidates were authorized to collect petition signatures electronically; and the filing deadline was extended to July 20, 2020.
