PETITION FOR REHEARING

Pursuant to Rule 44.2 and based on current intervening circumstances of substantial or controlling effect, Petitioner Jody D Kimbrell respectfully petitions for rehearing of the Court's order denying Mandamus in this case.

I. This Proceeding Involves a Question of Exceptional Importance

"EQUAL JUSTICE UNDER LAW" is written above the main entrance to the Supreme Court Building. It is the ultimate responsibility of the Supreme Court of the United States and;

Unless the U.S. Supreme Court exercises its power of judicial review for a disenfranchised Illinois voter;

The Republic dies in the darkness

It is time for the U.S. Supreme Court to intercede, which is exactly what the petitioner is asking it to do, exercise legitimately its power of judicial review for a disenfranchised Illinois voter allegation of Illinois public officials misconduct in a federal election.

GROUND FOR REHEARING

A. History is the School of Politics

History is the school of politics. It opens the hidden springs of human affairs. It sets before us striking instances of virtue, enterprise, courage, generosity, patriotism, and by a natural principle of emulation, incites us to copy such noble examples.

It leads to the rise, grandeur, revolutions, and fall of empires and points out the influence the manners of a people exert upon a government, as well as the influence the government exerts upon the manners of a people.

It illustrates the blessings of political union, the miseries of faction, the dangers of unbridled liberty, and the abuses by despotic power.

It displays the dealings of God with mankind, calls upon us to regard, with awe, His darker judgments, and again it awakens the liveliest of emotions of gratitude for His benevolence, cultivates a sense of dependence on Him, and impresses us with a conviction of His justice.

History furnishes matter for conversation, chastens the imagination, enlarges the range of thought, and strengthens and disciplines the mind.

History is what guides the future.

B. What Happens if History is Lost?

Supreme Court Justices become befuddled, using fragments of history to render decisions upon the population. Some even impose their own ideology, which likens to putting false words into the mouths of our Founders.

The false words become fact, and the population lives with the results.

Groups form to impose their beliefs, and as more history is replaced, more false information is spread.

These radical groups couldn't impose their beliefs as a good policy unless Courts agree with them, media spreads their propaganda, Hollywood embraces it, riots to divide the population against itself and corrupt politicians lust for it.

Therefore the truth and our past slowly die with the ages. What happens if we do not speak up against it?

America falls.

C. 778,883 Votes Just Do Not Appear

The goal in this situation first started with an Illinois voter reviewing the Cook County official website and noticing the amount of votes did not match the registered voters;

The process continued by contacting the public election officials--no response;

Then petitioning the Illinois Supreme Court for mandamus for the public officials to answer, why there was more votes (way MORE) votes then registered voters on the Cook County website;

So much it changed the winner of the Illinois Presidential Electoral votes from Biden to Trump and Durbin to Curran senate race.

The Illinois Supreme Court denied her petition without reason or opinion. Wokeness? Strangles justice and the law.

III. Reasons for Granting Review

Petitioner filed the petition for a US Supreme Court Mandamus for clear citation of its authority that should give the Illinois Supreme Court the backbone to order the Illinois Election Board-Chicago, the Governor of Illinois and the Cook County clerk to explain 778,883 votes without registered voters were "counted" in their totals and;

Why they were involved in unreasonable application of clearly established Federal law that prohibits alleged ballot box stuffing.

By this Court backing the Illinois Supreme Court pushing it to "do its duty" and order answers to the question: "Where did the "extra" 778,883 votes come from.

In essence it will serve to ensure that the changing views of the actual majority in Illinois is not undermined of their fundamental values common to all Americans, i.e. free and fair elections.

IV. Should We the People Have Faith in You?

A. Constitutional Interpretation

The US Supreme Court is the highest tribunal in the Nation for all cases and controversies arising under the Constitution. This Court is charged with ensuring the American people the promise of Equal Justice under the law. If public officials skew with its words to twist it to their favor to win, this Court as guardian and interpreter of the Constitution can set them back on their heels;

Even for a single citizen of this Republic demanding her state public officials explain the results they certified as fair, free and without fraud.

"Feeble as was the American army when Washington commenced his retreat, it had by the hour diminished. His troops were unfed, amidst fatigue, unshod, while their bleeding feet were forced over sharp projections of frozen ground and they endured the keen December air almost without clothes or tents.

Washington, with the firmness of the commander united with the tenderness of the father, visited the sick, gave everything in his power to the wants of the army praised their constancy, represented their suffering to Congress, and encouraged their despairing minds by holding out prospects of a better future. Ever relying on God for support and direction, he moved calmly forward amid the darkest storms, assured that even defeat in battle, insults of foes, or ingratitude or treachery in friends, would eventually work together for good to those whose cause was blessed of God. ¹

We are again on the battlefield with Washington and living the struggle America faces for liberty. We cannot fail our children. To do so would leave our legacy in shambles and our beloved America gone forever;

Amid all the flare-up of political strife, by which some will be agitated let us ever bear aloft;

The Union: ONE Inseparable

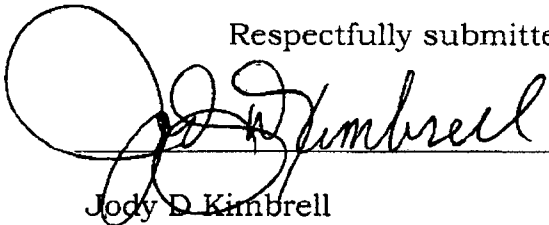

Because;

Free and Fair Elections are America's foundation and we cannot allow her to fall by the misconduct of a few.

This Petition for Re-hearing should be granted.
