DEFINITION

Petition. A written address, embodying an application or prayer from the person or persons preferring it, to the power, body, or person to whom it is presented, for the exercise of his or their authority in the redress of some wrong, or the grant of some favor, privilege, or license.

Writ of Certiorari. An order by the appellate court which is used when the court has discretion on whether or not to hear an appeal. If the writ is denied the court refuses to hear the appeal and, in effect, the judgment below stands unchanged. If the writ is granted, then it has the effect of ordering the lower court to certify the record and send it up to the higher court which has used its discretion to hear the appeal

This Statement of Limitation was Executed within the United States, its territories, possessions, and commonwealths: I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing instrument is the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth and correct so help me God.

Executed on this Twenty First (21st.) day of January 2021 A. D.

Affiant further sayeth naught.
