Good evening Mr Goldberger! I'll trust your decision and allow you to withdraw my pro se petition and go forward with yours. Again, thanks a lot for your help and concerns.

[REDACTED] I was able to access a copy of your pro se petition on the Supreme Court's website. It was filed April 14, and on April 21 the Solicitor General (government's Supreme Court lawyer) advised they did not intend even to file an answer, which 99% of the time (or more) is a sure indicator of a prompt denial. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I recommend that you authorize me to withdraw that petition in favor of the one I filed, to give you a somewhat better chance..
